TRENTON'S SAD LESSON

How the Potteries of That Town are Affected.

SHORTER TIME—SMALLER WAGES

The Tariff is Playing a Destructive Game Down in New Jersey—Statistics That are Eloquent—Manufacturers and Operatives Tell the Same Story.

The following article is from the Philadelphia Press, and will be appreciated by the potters of this city, who have reason to know the result of the new tariff on pottery.

"The labor-destroying and capital-consuming effects of the Wilson tariff act are no better demonstrated in any of the many fields in which they have wrought so much misery and ruin than in the great pottery industry of this city, where, before that vicious piece of legislation, between 8,000 and 10,000 workmen enjoyed steady work at good wages, and about 30 potteries returned a fair profit on the capital invested in them. Before the changed tariff rates, when a protective duty of 55 per cent on white goods and 50 per cent on decorated ware was in force, the pottery plants of Trenton ran on full time and paid good wages to a great army of men and women, and there were no more prosperous sections of the city than those inhabited by the people who depended upon the potteries for their means of employment.

"The changes wrought by the Wilson tariff reduction, making the duty 30 per cent on white goods and 35 per cent on decorated ware, have been lived under by Trenton potters long enough to convince them of the bitter fruits of a free trade policy, and they will be among the majority to cast their votes in New Jersey this year against the representatives of the party responsible for this depressive era in their trade.

"These tariff changes have well nigh wiped out the pottery industry of Trenton. It is true not all of the plants have closed down entirely, but in every one of them that is making any effort to manufacture goods the predominant idea is to struggle on in an effort to hold the trade, or a part of it, in the hope, born of the Republican victories last year, that the true friends of American labor will soon be in position to right the great wrong done them by the last Democratic congress.

"No argument from us is needed to convince any one of the fact that the new tariff has worked this great injury to our industries," said a member of one of the well known pottery firms to a Press representative. "The argument is furnished in the condition of the American trade, which has decreased in volume from the day it was apparent that a change in the tariff was coming, and in the corresponding increase of the business of the foreign potteries in this country, which has been steadily on the increase since the new tariff became operative, and that, too, despite the fact that the purchasing power of our people has been so much curtailed by the general effects of the new tariff law.

"It cannot be denied that the condition of the foreign pottery trade has been improved by the changed tariff, and the proof of this carries with it the conviction that the American manufacturer has at least lost all that the foreigner has gained.

"The Staffordshire, England, Sentinel, of Sept. 28, of the present year, contains the following: 'The pottery trade of North Staffordshire continues to exhibit a considerably improved condition as compared with the previous year, and every indication is manifested that the improvement will be maintained. The American trade is still brisk, notwithstanding the enormous quantities of ware which are shipped every week. The revival of trade with the United States is very marked, and orders are plentiful. Many firms which do chiefly an American trade have sufficient orders on their books to keep the manufactories in full work until the end of the year. The home trade is not so brisk, but nevertheless shows an all around improvement. The china trade is only moderately good. Prices continue low, and competition and underselling go on to as great a degree as ever. The cost of materials remains unaltered.'

"No argument could be more convincing than this," added the manufacturer. "Certainly the people of Trenton, who have lived through the changes wrought here, are convinced, and it would be hard to find a potter who was a Democrat who is one now.

"Before the change in the tariff was threatened the Trenton potteries ran full time, paid good wages and enjoyed a reasonable share of prosperity. Since the new tariff went into effect the potteries have been operated about one-half of the time until within the last three or four months, when they have been running on two-thirds time with largely decreased forces. In our pottery during a certain period of the present year we paid in wages $49,840. During the same period under the operation of the McKinley tariff we paid in wages $83,520."

"Another pottery which now pays $1,200 for labor each week paid $3,800 a week under the operation of the McKinley tariff, and the comparisons at all of the potteries are well illustrated by these two instances.

"Another member of a pottery firm in speaking of the changed conditions said: 'For the four months ending in April of this year the official figures show that English potters shipped to this country pottery valued at $1,424,560, while during the same period under the last year of the McKinley tariff they sold in this country goods of their manufacture valued at $832,775. From Jan. 1 to Feb. 16 of this 12,653 packages of English pottery were landed and sold in this country, while during the same period under the operation of the McKinley tariff the shipments amounted to 6,313 packages. There is the explanation of the depressed condition of the pottery industry in Trenton.

"The cost of the American product is 90 per cent labor, and with the present tariff we cannot compete with the cheap price labor employed in the potteries of Europe."

"The fact that the labor in the potteries of Europe is cheap and the difference in its cost and that of the labor of this country were brought out by interviews with two expert potters employed by the International Pottery company, both of whom are natives of England, having been employed in potteries there before they came to this country.

"The first man interrogated was W. P. Jones. 'What is the difference in the price of labor in the potteries of this country and those of England?' was asked of him.

"The difference," he said, 'is this: What we are paid $12 for here, they get $6.25 for in England.'

"What is the difference in your condition now as compared with your condition before the change of the tariff?' was asked.

"I do more work for less money and have less work to do," was his pointed answer.

"Henry Mason, the other workman interviewed, answered the first question in substantially the same way, adding that in England a fair day's wages for a potter was $1, while in this country the same workman would make $2.50 a day without doing a greater amount of work.

"To the second question, as to the difference between his condition now as compared with his condition before the change in the tariff, he said: 'Why, man, it's all different, and a most distressing difference, too.'

"The actual cut in the wages of the Trenton potters since the changed condition wrought by the tariff has been 12 1/2 per cent. This does not, however, begin to show what the employees have suffered and are suffering. Many of them have been thrown out of employment altogether, and those of them who have been retained as employees of the potteries have had little work during the most of the time the new tariff has been in operation. Another illustration of the changes that have brought this about is presented by the books of one firm, whose sales in September, 1891, were $30,000, while last month they were $5,000. The same firm disposed of $220,000.80 worth of its ware in 1891, and $50,000 worth in 1894."

JOHN HANLEY

Visits the News Review Office and Tells His Story.

John Hanley visited the sanctum sanctorum this morning and chatted pleasantly over the late trouble at Westminster. It will be remembered that John was at first blamed for being a leader among the fraternity members who did the hazing which has caused so much comment throughout the country. Mr. Hanley demanded a rigid examination and came forth from the ordeal with flying colors, and will pursue his studies at the college. His many friends in East Liverpool will be glad to hear that his educational privileges will not be interfered with.

Death of George W. Nelson.

George W. Nelson, one of the best known merchants of Lisbon, died this afternoon, aged 81 years, of heart failure. The funeral will take place from the late residence on next Monday. Deceased was the father of Miss Eva Nelson, of Wellsville. He had a host of warm personal friends throughout Columbiana county.

TALKED OF CALCUTTA

Harrison Rinehart's Contract Changed.

A NEW GRADE ESTABLISHED

The Price Reduced, But the Contractor Agreed—Property Owners Want the Street Paved, But They Will Have to be Satisfied With Sidewalks.

All the members were present at the adjourned meeting of council last evening except Mr. Kent, and while there was a disposition to hurry affairs, it took more than an hour and a half to change the grade on Calcutta road.

Mr. Stewart opened the ball by stating that he had been interviewing residents of Calcutta road and found that they were anxious to have the road paved as well as the sidewalks. He thought, however, this was out of the question, this fall, but he would like to see the sidewalks paved. Mr. Horwell had also been around seeing the people, and he had discovered that Mr. Gaston wanted a second grade established. Mr. Challis said that a second grade meant a dangerous spot always, and it would be necessary to place a railing there in order to keep people from falling off and suing the city for damages. He wanted the street cut down, and the sidewalk built in the right way. Engineer George was then given an opportunity to talk, and remarked that if the sidewalk along the Gaston property was eliminated from the improvement, the contract price of Harrison Rinehart would be reduced 19 cents. He thought it a very good idea to grade and pave the sidewalks before winter came, for bad weather always made life miserable for those people.

Here council went into a committee of the whole, and Mr. McNutt was allowed to speak. He said they all wanted the Calcutta road paved, and paved as soon as possible.

Attorney Brookes was given the floor and talked for Mr. Gaston. Their understanding at the last meeting was that the bump was to remain. Mr. Gaston favored the improvement, but the cut would be much more costly than the assessment by the city. The only way he could see out of the difficulty was to give a second grade, on which the sidewalk could be laid. Then Mr. Gaston's property would not be seriously hurt. At length council decided to give the second grade, and sent out for Contractor Rinehart to see what he thought about it. He objected a little, but saw nothing to do other than accept it. Mr. Owen moved that in order to act intelligently, Engineer George present to council a drawing showing the proposed sidewalks on the Gaston and Brunt properties. On motion of Mr. Challis, the city commissioner was instructed to put a sewer pipe in Minerva street for carrying off the water of the annoying run.

A PIONEER GONE.

W. J. Mayer Departed This Life at 10:30 This Morning.

At 10:30 this morning the death angel called for the spirit of W. J. Mayer. Deceased was born at Newcastle on Tyne, England, January 1, 1844, and came to this country when about ten years of age. He has been a resident of East Liverpool and employed in potteries at this point for almost forty years. He was also a veteran of the late war, having served under the glorious stars and stripes for a period of three years. At the close of the war he was married to Miss Hannah Thomas, who died Dec. 27, 1885. Six children were the fruit of this marriage, four of whom are still living. His second wife, who survives him, was Miss Hannah Goddard; the wedding took place in 1889. Two children were born to this union, one of whom is now living. He leaves three sisters and one brother to mourn his loss.

Mr. Mayer served a term in council in the year 1883, which body in that year advanced the village to a city of the second class. Deceased suffered terribly for almost two years with liver complaint, and death came to him as a merciful relief. Time and place of interment have not yet been set.

THIRD WARD REPUBLICANS.

A Ringing Letter From a Friend of Good Government.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—My attention has been called to a nasty attack upon our wardman and fellow citizen, on the part of the Democratic daily of this city. By way of reprisal, we propose to give John J. Purinton the full Republican vote of the Third ward, with a sprinkling of Democratic votes, men who have the good of the ward and city at heart, and who desire to see just such men as Purinton occupying seats in the councilmanic chamber. With such men in charge of municipal affairs, we can and will have clean government, and the best interests of East Liverpool will be carefully guarded and looked after. Another feature speaks in trumpet tones to merchants, mechanics and workmen of East Liverpool. Put such men as Purinton in council, and there will be a determined effort to bring our city to the front in various enterprises, adding to our wealth, our population, our employing power and our reputation throughout the land. Let us be wide awake on Monday next, at the special election, Oct. 28, and see to it that every Republican casts his vote for John J. Purinton and clean government. THIRD WARDER.

SUPPER AND MUSIC.

The Presbyterian Ladies Eminent Success as Entertainers.

The supper and musicale given by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church last evening was an enjoyable and profitable affair, inasmuch as all who had the good fortune to be present were well fed and delightfully entertained. After the supper the whole party went to the lecture room of the church where the program was rendered. Miss Huston opened with a piano solo and was followed by Miss Kountz on the violin and Miss Kountz on the piano. The duet was loudly encoored and the rendition of "Nearer My God to Thee" which followed was equally well received. Mrs. J. C. Thompson, with Mr. Ted Macrum as accompanist, sang as only Mrs. Thompson can sing, and although the audience demanded it, would not answer the loud applause with another selection. A piano solo by Miss Kountz was delightfully given, and the program closed with a perfectly rendered piano duet by Miss Besse Adams and Mr. Ted Macrum. The entire evening was one of exceptional pleasure to the large number of people present.

KNOCK THEM OUT.

The Police Should Have Been Called Into Requisition.

A young lady was walking out Sixth street last night when a crowd of hoodlums looting on the street began to make insulting remarks to her. A gentleman, who chanced by, heard the expressions that were directed toward the young lady, and immediately gave the crowd a tongue lashing that they richly deserved. One of them challenged the gentleman out to fight, thinking that he would not accept. In this they were mistaken. He immediately assumed the attitude of an aggressor, and the challenger quickly took to his heels and disappeared around the corner.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

The Members Were Out in Force Last Night.

There was an interesting meeting at the Republican headquarters last night and good work was accomplished, a number of new members being added to the rapidly swelling list. It was determined that a special meeting shall be held on Tuesday night, Oct. 29, at the rooms, to make arrangements for Governor McKinley's reception. Each and every member of the organization is earnestly urged to be present at the time specified, as it is the intention to do full honor to the leading Republican of the Buckeye state.

AN ANCIENT CLOCK.

It is Over an Hundred Years of Age and Still Works.

Mr. J. M. Kelly, of Fifth street, today carried home from a jewelry store, where it had been receiving repairs, an ancient clock that has been in use for many years. The clock was made in Cincinnati over 100 years ago, and has been handed down from generations in the family of Mr. Kelly. It still does duty as a timepiece, but like other clocks of more recent origin, is prone to get out of repair. It is in a splendid state of preservation.

A DISASTROUS COLLAPSE.

A Bicycle Manufactory In Ruins and Many Workmen Injured.

Special to News Review.
CLYDE, O., Oct. 25.—The east wall of the Elwood bicycle manufactory collapsed this morning, when the floors were filled with workmen, and more than a dozen were badly injured. It is asserted that several employees are buried beneath the ruins. The financial loss will be quite heavy.

Arabs.

A trio of wandering musicians have struck the town and their services have been retained by a number of our society young people to play for a few informal hops that they will give.

ASKING DAN LAMONT

Notice Wanted When the Wickets Are Raised.

AT THE DAVIS ISLAND DAM

Vice President Purinton Writes a Little to the Secretary Which Has An Important Bearing on the Health of the City. Hopes It Will Be Heeded.

The following letter written by J. J. Purinton and sent to Washington today has an important bearing upon the health of the city, and tells its own story.

Hon. Dan S. Lamont, secretary of war, Washington, D. C., Oct. 16, '95.

DEAR SIR:—Under the assumption that Davis Island dam, on the Ohio river, near Pittsburg, is under the jurisdiction of your department, I prefer the request that an order be issued to the officers in charge, that whenever the wickets of said dam are lowered a notice of that be telegraphed by him to our city health officer or water works superintendent, at the same time giving the time likely to elapse before the waters so released will likely reach us. I would also suggest that said notice be not less than 24 hours ahead. The reason for this request is this: We are 40 miles below Pittsburg, and our public water supply is from the river, and it has been noticed that when the wickets are lowered after a dry spell, such as we have had and are having, the water is at first very bad, caused by the accumulations of filth from the cities of Pittsburg and Allegheny, and the other towns above the dam. The desirability of this notice is potent to you without argument, and had we this notice we could arrange to avoid the greater part of the danger thereof. I hope you will see your way clear to at least issue a temporary order at once before the wickets are opened from the protracted drouth of this summer and fall, and further details perfected afterwards. Thanking you in advance for your courtesy in the matter, I remain, Your obedient servant, JOHN J. PURINTON, Vice president board of health.

FORGER IN THE TOILS.

His Smart Game Detected by Banker Macrum.

A man on a bicycle stopped at William Hyatt's restaurant yesterday afternoon and asked permission to board there for a week. He said he had no money, and tendered Hyatt a check on the First National bank of Emelton, Pa., signed by O. H. Anderson, which he said was himself. The check was presented at the First National bank here by Hyatt, and Banker Macrum said that a check had been presented there, signed by the same man, for $30, the day previous. Macrum telegraphed the bank at Emelton, and received the following: "N. G. Macrum, cashier: Arrest, if possible, man who drew check signed O. H. Anderson. Thirty dollars. Yours 24th. This is a forgery and the third one; his real name is L. T. Withrup. When arrested, advise us promptly. E. E. SLOAN."

Hyatt and Macrum notified the authorities here and a search was instituted for the man. Patrolman McMillan spied him going into Hyatt's restaurant this morning and placed him under arrest. He quietly submitted, and was taken to jail, where the authorities will hold him, awaiting developments from Pennsylvania.

Ben Little In Trouble.

The following is taken from the Wellsville Union of yesterday: "Ben R. Little, of East Liverpool, has been arrested on the charge of distributing obscene literature in this city. Some of the literature was discovered in the hands of one of our young girls and was being circulated in the schools, which led to the arrest of Little. At a hearing before Mayor Sinclair he was bound over to court in the sum of $200. Little furnished bond for his appearance."

Members of the Little family were seen today, but they refused to talk about the matter.

Death of Charles Cooley.

Charles Cooley, son of Findley Cooley, East End, died at Beaver this morning, aged about 22 years, of typhoid fever. He was staying with his aunt, Mrs. Hattie Clark, and was a student at Beaver college preparing for the Methodist ministry. He had many friends in the East End and was popular among the students. His father went to Beaver yesterday afternoon.

Arrested For False Pretense.

Mrs. Kilmer, of Third street, was arrested today on a charge of falsely claiming a pocketbook which did not belong to her.

Mr. Owen moved that in order to act intelligently, Engineer George present to council a drawing showing the proposed sidewalks on the Gaston and Brunt properties. On motion of Mr. Challis, the city commissioner was instructed to put a sewer pipe in Minerva street for carrying off the water of the annoying run.

A PIONEER GONE.

W. J. Mayer Departed This Life at 10.30 This Morning.

At 10.30 this morning the death angel called for the spirit of W. J. Mayer. Deceased was born at Newcastle on Tyne, England, January 1, 1844, and came to this country when about ten years of age. He has been a resident of East Liverpool and employed in potteries at this point for almost forty years. He was also a veteran of the late war, having served under the glorious stars and stripes for a period of three years. At the close of the war he was married to Miss Hannah Thomas, who died Dec. 27, 1885. Six children were the fruit of this marriage, four of whom are still living. His second wife, who survives him, was Miss Hannah Goddard; the wedding took place in 1889. Two children were born to this union, one of whom is now living. He leaves three sisters and one brother to mourn his loss.

Mr. Mayer served a term in council in the year 1883, which body in that year advanced the village to a city of the second class. Deceased suffered terribly for almost two years with liver complaint, and death came to him as a merciful relief. Time and place of interment have not yet been set.

THIRD WARD REPUBLICANS.

A Ringing Letter From a Friend of Good Government.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—My attention has been called to a nasty attack upon our wardman and fellow citizen, on the part of the Democratic daily of this city. By way of reprisal, we propose to give John J. Purinton the full Republican vote of the Third ward, with a sprinkling of Democratic votes, men who have the good of the ward and city at heart, and who desire to see just such men as Purinton occupying seats in the councilmanic chamber. With such men in charge of municipal affairs, we can and will have clean government, and the best interests of East Liverpool will be carefully guarded and looked after. Another feature speaks in trumpet tones to merchants, mechanics and workmen of East Liverpool. Put such men as Purinton in council, and there will be a determined effort to bring our city to the front in various enterprises, adding to our wealth, our population, our employing power and our reputation throughout the land. Let us be wide awake on Monday next, at the special election, Oct. 28, and see to it that every Republican casts his vote for John J. Purinton and clean government. THIRD WARDER.

SUPPER AND MUSIC.

The Presbyterian Ladies Eminent Success as Entertainers.

The supper and musicale given by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church last evening was an enjoyable and profitable affair, inasmuch as all who had the good fortune to be present were well fed and delightfully entertained. After the supper the whole party went to the lecture room of the church where the program was rendered. Miss Huston opened with a piano solo and was followed by Miss Kountz on the violin and Miss Kountz on the piano. The duet was loudly encoored and the rendition of "Nearer My God to Thee" which followed was equally well received. Mrs. J. C. Thompson, with Mr. Ted Macrum as accompanist, sang as only Mrs. Thompson can sing, and although the audience demanded it, would not answer the loud applause with another selection. A piano solo by Miss Kountz was delightfully given, and the program closed with a perfectly rendered piano duet by Miss Bessie Adams and Mr. Ted Macrum. The entire evening was one of exceptional pleasure to the large number of people present.

KNOCK THEM OUT.

The Police Should Have Been Called Into Requisition.

A young lady was walking out Sixth street last night when a crowd of hoodlums loafing on the street began to make insulting remarks to her. A gentleman, who chanced by, heard the expressions that were directed toward the young lady, and immediately gave the crowd a tongue lashing that they richly deserved. One of them challenged the gentleman out to fight, thinking that he would not accept. In this they were mistaken. He immediately assumed the attitude of an aggressor, and the challenger quickly took to his heels and disappeared around the corner.

The Members Were Out In Force Last Night.

There was an interesting meeting at the Republican headquarters last night and good work was accomplished, a number of new members being added to the rapidly swelling list. It was determined that a special meeting shall be held on Tuesday night, Oct. 29, at the rooms, to make arrangements for Governor McKinley's reception. Each and every member of the organization is earnestly urged to be present at the time specified, as it is the intention to do full honor to the leading Republican of the Buckeye state.

AN ANCIENT CLOCK.

It is Over an Hundred Years of Age and Still Works.

Mr. J. M. Kelly, of Fifth street, today carried home from a jewelry store, where it had been receiving repairs, an ancient clock that has been in use for many years. The clock was made in Cincinnati over 100 years ago, and has been handed down from generations in the family of Mr. Kelly. It still does duty as a timepiece, but like other clocks of more recent origin, is prone to get out of repair. It is in a splendid state of preservation.

A DISASTROUS COLLAPSE.

A Bicycle Manufactory In Ruins and Many Workmen Injured.

SPECIAL TO NEWS REVIEW. CLYDE, O., Oct. 25.—The east wall of the Elwood bicycle manufactory collapsed this morning, when the floors were filled with workmen, and more than a dozen were badly injured. It is asserted that several employees are buried beneath the ruins. The financial loss will be quite heavy.

ASKING DAN LAMONT

Notice Wanted When the Wickets Are Raised.

AT THE DAVIS ISLAND DAM

Vice President Purinton Writes a Little to the Secretary Which Has An Important Bearing on the Health of the City. Hopes It Will Be Heeded.

The following letter written by J. J. Purinton and sent to Washington today has an important bearing upon the health of the city, and tells its own story.

Hon. Dan S. Lamont, secretary of war, Washington, D. C., Oct. 16, '95.

DEAR SIR:—Under the assumption that Davis Island dam, on the Ohio river, near Pittsburgh, is under the jurisdiction of your department, I prefer the request that an order be issued to the officers in charge, that whenever the wickets of said dam are lowered a notice of that be telegraphed by him to our city health officer or water works superintendent, at the same time giving the time likely to elapse before the waters so released will likely reach us. I would also suggest that said notice be not less than 24 hours ahead. The reason for this request is this: We are 40 miles below Pittsburgh, and our public water supply is from the river, and it has been noticed that when the wickets are lowered after a dry spell, such as we have had and are having, the water is at first very bad, caused by the accumulations of filth from the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and the other towns above the dam. The desirability of this notice is potent to you without argument, and had we this notice we could arrange to avoid the greater part of the danger thereof. I hope you will see your way clear to at least issue a temporary order at once before the wickets are opened from the protracted drouth of this summer and fall, and further details perfected afterwards. Thanking you in advance for your courtesy in the matter, I remain, Your obedient servant, JOHN J. PURINTON, Vice president board of health.

FORGER IN THE TOILS.

His Smart Game Detected by Banker Macrum.

A man on a bicycle stopped at William Hyatt's restaurant yesterday afternoon and asked permission to board there for a week. He said he had no money, and tendered Hyatt a check on the First National bank of Emelton, Pa., signed by O. H. Anderson, which he said was himself. The check was presented at the First National bank here by Hyatt, and Banker Macrum said that a check had been presented there, signed by the same man, for $30, the day previous. Macrum telegraphed the bank at Emelton, and received the following: "N. G. Macrum, cashier: Arrest, if possible, man who drew check signed O. H. Anderson. Thirty dollars. Yours 24th. This is a forgery and the third one; his real name is L. T. Withrup. When arrested, advise us promptly. E. E. SLOAN."

Hyatt and Macrum notified the authorities here and a search was instituted for the man. Patrolman McMillan spied him going into Hyatt's restaurant this morning and placed him under arrest. He quietly submitted, and was taken to jail, where the authorities will hold him, awaiting developments from Pennsylvania.

Ben Little In Trouble.

The following is taken from the Wellsville Union of yesterday: "Ben R. Little, of East Liverpool, has been arrested on the charge of distributing obscene literature in this city. Some of the literature was discovered in the hands of one of our young girls and was being circulated in the schools, which led to the arrest of Little. At a hearing before Mayor Sinclair he was bound over to court in the sum of $200. Little furnished bond for his appearance."

Members of the Little family were seen today, but they refused to talk about the matter.

Death of Charles Cooley.

Charles Cooley, son of Findley Cooley, East End, died at Beaver this morning, aged about 22 years, of typhoid fever. He was staying with his aunt, Mrs. Hattie Clark, and was a student at Beaver college preparing for the Methodist ministry. He had many friends in the East End and was popular among the students. His father went to Beaver yesterday afternoon.

Arrested For False Pretense.

Mrs. Kilmer, of Third street, was arrested today on a charge of falsely claiming a pocketbook which did not belong to her.

VOLUME 11, NUMBER 117

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY. HARRY PALMER, THOS. W. MORRIS, Editor. Office, Wells Building, Washington & Fourth. (Entered as second class matter at the East Liverpool, O., postoffice.) EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, OCT. 25.

For President, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, Of Ohio.

THE TICKET.

For Governor, ASA B. BUSHNELL. For Lieutenant Governor, ASA W. JONES. For Auditor of State, WALTER GILBERT. For Judge of Supreme Court, THADDEUS A. MINSHALL. For Clerk of Supreme Court, ST. ALLEN. For Attorney General, FRANK MONNETT. For Representative, W. C. HUTCHESON. For Representative, P. M. ASHFORD. For Sheriff, CHARLES GILL. For Treasurer, L. B. CAMERON. For Auditor, GEO. B. HARVEY. For Commissioner, JOSEPH FRENCH. For Infirmary Director, J. M. MCBRIDE.

As are the leaders, so is the party. You know the so-called leader of the Democracy in East Liverpool. Comment is unnecessary.

FOR COUNCIL—J. J. PURINTON.

J. J. Purinton, level headed business man and good citizen, is a candidate for council, and the best thing that could have happened to him has occurred. He has been attacked by the local organ of Democracy. In the eyes of that sheet he is everything bad, which means that when judged from the standard of good men he is not only all that is right, but he is the very man for the position of councilman. The mere fact that he does not meet with the approval of the Democratic boss is the very reason why he will get the largest majority accorded a Republican candidate in the Third ward for many years. The people want no such officials as the Democratic organ would set up; and what is more, they will not have them. Clean, honest and enterprising are the qualifications demanded by the public, and the gang which attempts to show that Mr. Purinton is otherwise, stands convicted before the entire community. He has lived here for many years, and his voice has ever been raised in any cause which had for its culmination the advancement of East Liverpool. He has been numbered among the progressive men of the city, and never has he been found battling on the side of wrong. With John Purinton in council there will be added a worker who is acquainted with the needs of the city, a lawyer whose presence may be the means of preventing wrong through ignorance of the law. He can and will devote himself to the duties attached to the position, and will undoubtedly oppose some of the disreputable schemes which find a lodging in the figure head of the organ in question. John Purinton is conservative and sensible, and just such a man as will cast his vote, not in the interests of any one particular individual, but in the interests of the people.

And one other thing. It is absolutely necessary that future councils look to the welfare of the city better than have those in the past. There are councilmen and councilmen, good, bad and indifferent. Some chase a cherished plan through an entire term, others are no good to themselves or their constituents. What we need and what we must have are not men who tie themselves up in one word and expend their every effort in that cause, but broad minded, far seeing men, whose glance will go over the city, and whose efforts will be directed for the greatest good to the greatest number. A council chamber full of such men as John Purinton would drive his opponents wild with eagerness to get them out of office, but their presence in the city government would mark a new era in Liverpool; would mean a good municipal government. The scurrilous and uncalled for attack upon John Purinton has made him many warm friends, who will devote their time to urging his cause and pushing his claim for the office. A vote for John J. Purinton for council in the Third ward is a vote for an advocate of clean government, a vote for an exponent of honesty in the administration of municipal affairs. Vote for him yourself and see that every ballot goes in on Monday, October 28.

DESTRUCTIVE REBELS.

Cuban Insurgents Commit Numerous Depredations.

THEY KILL A PEACEABLE CITIZEN.

Young Woman and Policeman Wounded and Much Property Destroyed—A Member of the Cuban Junta Gives Particulars of the Puerto Principe Victory.

HAVANA, Oct. 25.—The band of insurgents commanded by Clotilde Garcia, who recently attacked Hato Nuevo, have killed a peaceable citizen, wounded a young lady and a policeman and burned a church and 27 houses of that place, the buildings being the property of the mayor of the town. The insurgents were pursued and the troops captured one of them, a man who was severely wounded.

The insurgents have also attacked the village of Esperanza, in the province of Santa Clara, seriously wounding a Spanish sentinel who fired upon their advance guard at the plantation of Labrador. After exchanging shots for an hour the insurgents retired with a loss of two killed.

A band of 300 insurgents under the leadership of Fraga, El Inglesito, Le Muerte and Regino Alonzo, which had concentrated between Navajas and Corral Falso, province of Matanzas, have marched to the San Miguel hill of Matanzas.

A skirmish has taken place at Palmira, province of Santa Clara, between a detachment of 33 infantry soldiers, commanded by Lieutenant Barrios, and a band of 20 insurgents. Two of the latter were killed. The insurgents have derailed a train near Placetas. Lieutenant Gallego, who surrendered the small dispatch boat Dos de May at Aserradero bay, near Santiago de Cuba, recently to a number of insurgents, who attacked the patroling craft unexpectedly, has arrived here with the crew of the vessel, consisting of 12 men. They are under arrest and will be tried by court martial.

Confirmation has been received here of the report that a body of men was seen lately around Canimaricao, on the Canimar river, province of Matanzas. These men are supposed to have belonged to a recently landed filibustering expedition; but no details regarding them have as yet been made public. A special from Minneapolis says: A member of the Cuban junta who travels for the cigar trade, and who was colonel in the first Cuban revolution, has reached here. He has been concerned in every effort of the American junta to help the Cuban cause, including the Wilmington affair. Following is a dispatch he has received from Cuba describing the recent revolutionist victory which gave the control of the province of Puerto Principe to the insurgents.

General Maceo, acting under orders from the war minister, started to march from Santiago de Cuba to join General Banchios in Las Villas, in the province of Santa Clara, where they were to unite their forces and ravage the sugar plantations. The Spanish got wind of General Maceo's intention and immediately dispatched a formidable column of 2,800 men, under General Echagua, to prevent the junction of the Cuban armies. This column found General Maceo as far advanced on his way as the San Juan valley, in the south of Cuba, between Polguin and Barajunga. Maceo had 3,000 men, of which 500 were cavalry, and 2,500 infantry. The Spanish had 200 men less, but this difference was more than compensated for by the possession of three excellent pieces of artillery. The battle began at once and was fought by the Cubans with great fury. After four hours of terrific fighting General Echagua was driven from the field in disorderly retreat, leaving 800 killed and wounded men and all his artillery behind him. Since the battle the insurgents have overrun Puerto Principe and have effected a junction with General Banchios at Las Villas.

The colonel said: "We are bound to win. We control three-fourths of the island now. Our men are armed not only with Munsars captured from the Spaniards, but also with Winchester and Remingtons sent from the United States. There are over 300 American officers in our army and more are going every day. Only a few of the relief expeditions we are sending out get into the papers. We are now planning a couple that will put a final quietus on Spain."

dor Cisnoros, has sent Dr. Joaquin Castillo, well remembered in connection with the Jeannette expedition, to this country to treat with President Cleveland. He has not yet arrived and is probably having trouble in getting through the lines.

His Skull Crushed In.

SOUTH GREENFIELD, Mo., Oct. 25.—As W. D. Ford was passing along the railroad he discovered a man lying in the center of the track about half a mile west of town, and upon examination it was found to be the body of W. D. Perrell, druggist and liverman of this place. Perrell's skull was crushed in, evidently by a blow from behind. It is evident that he was murdered and then placed on the track, as his watch was taken. A telegram was sent to Springfield to an owner of bloodhounds and an effort will be made to track the murderer.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The Way Deserving Soldiers Have Their Pensions Taken From Them.

The soldier is drawing $10 per month, not dreaming that his pension will in any way be disturbed; he has not made an application for increase and has had no correspondence with the pension department since the granting of his pension. Without any warning he receives a notice from the commissioner of pensions as follows:

"Medical evidence on file in this department shows that you are not disabled in a pensionable degree by reason of the disabilities on which you are now drawing pension," and he is given 30 days to produce evidence to show why his name should not be dropped from the pension rolls. The soldier who had the patriotism and the courage to enlist in the army and endure the hardships of a four-year campaign is not a man that would call on a physician for treatment for every little ache or pain, and consequently in nine cases out of ten he can not give the medical evidence required, and at the end of 30 days his name is dropped from the rolls and helps to make up the number of 75,000 that were to be stricken off, as stated by the newspapers at the beginning of the Cleveland administration.

From the time of the administration of Commissioner Bently down to the time of Hoke Smith it has always been the rule in the department at Washington that where there was reasonable suspicion of fraud in the procuring of a pension the pensioner was notified and the government undertook to set aside its former judgment by proof of the fraudulent character of the obtainment, but now Mr. Hoke Smith, either through ignorance of the fundamental principles of law or in disregard thereof, suspends these pensions upon his own volition, thereby overruling the former judgment of his bureau and forcing the applicant to prove that the government was wrong when it decided in his favor. The attitude of this man is a burlesque upon justice, and the judicial character of old Dogberry has been raised a good many points by the stupid blundering of this frenzied official. What right has this scion of the southern confederacy to say that an adjudication in favor of a soldier was erroneous and reverse it, and then call upon the soldier to retry and re-establish his rights? A grosser abuse of power or usurpation has never happened before in this country. For Hoke Smith, upon his own motion, to order a soldier before a pension examining board is an arbitrary exercise of power without authority of law.

The truth is that this raid upon the pension list, which has been so systematically conducted for the past two or three years, is but the sequel of a pre-arranged conspiracy to force upon this country the free trade policy of the Democratic party. Tariff reform, as howled by the Democratic party, meant a large reduction in the revenues of the government, and reduction in revenue receipts necessitated reduction in expenditures, and so the old soldiers of the country have been made the victims of Democratic tariff reform.

Calvin S. Brice's part in this conspiracy consisted in seeing to it that no Union soldier should be appointed a pension examiner; also that no Republican should find a place on the pension boards, which has been carried out in the appointment of these boards all over Ohio, with probably two or three unimportant exceptions.

This was the cornerstone of the conspiracy, and the work of executing it was given to a hater of the Union soldier, habitue of Wall street, a millionaire and toady of aristocracy.

MAIL TRAIN WRECKED.

Disastrous Accident on the P. R. R. at Baileys.

CONTENTS OF FOUR CARS BURNED.

Two Men Killed and Postal Clerks Badly Hurt—Engineer and Fireman Buried in the Canal Under the Wrecked Engine. Broken Wheel Causes the Accident.

ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. 25.—A disastrous wreck, involving the death of two men, the injury of several others and the destruction of a large amount of mail matter has occurred near Bailey's station, on the middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad. It appears that a wheel on a car on an eastbound freight train broke at Trimmers Rock, near Baileys, and three or four cars were wrecked and thrown on the opposite track. The mail section of the southwestern express, composed of six postal cars and a storage car, was passing at the time, and crashed into the wreck. The engine was thrown from the track and hurled into the canal. Engineer Daniel Wolfkill and J. W. Haines, fireman, were instantly killed.

There were six mail cars on the wrecked train, the contents of four, with the exception of a few sacks for Louisville, St. Louis and a few smaller western towns, being destroyed. The contents of the other two cars were not damaged. All of the postal clerks were hurt, but not fatally so far as is known. E. A. Chamberlain, who resides at Harrisburg, was the most seriously hurt, having sustained a fracture of the left arm.

The postal cars took fire and the flames spread with such rapidity that it was impossible to save any of the mail matter. It was the through mail from New York, and no account can be given of the contents for several days.

As stated, the train was composed entirely of mail cars, and consequently no passengers were carried. The injured postal clerks received prompt attention, and those who are able will be sent to their homes at once.

The body of Engineer Wolfkill was found under the engine tender. It was bruised but slightly, and it was evident that he had been drowned. Fireman Haines' body is probably under the engine.

FATAL REAR-END COLLISION.

One Man Killed, a Woman Fatally Injured and 12 Others Hurt.

HYDE PARK, Mass., Oct. 25.—A rear-end collision has occurred here on the N. Y. N. H. & H. railroad, in which one man was killed, a woman fatally injured and 12 other passengers, including Congressman Elijah A. Morse, were more or less seriously hurt. The list of dead and injured is as follows:

G. M. Austin, brakeman, dead. The injured are: Mrs. William Ross of Cambridge, fatally injured internally; Congressman Elijah A. Morse of Canton, both hands and arms badly cut; W. B. Bragg, Roxbury, injured about head; Miss Ella Donovan, Boston, chest injured; J. F. Maguire, Roxbury, injured about head; Mrs. F. J. Maguire, injured about head; Mrs. Mary Barnes, Malden, injured internally; Mrs. J. Burns, Hyde Park, injured about head; Mrs. Gannon, Cambridge, internal injuries; Thomas J. Burke, Norfolk Station, injured about head; William B. Hoyt, Roxbury, internal injuries; Roscoe Rines, Roxbury, internal injuries.

The regular Mansfield accommodation train was just leaving the Hyde Park station, 10 minutes late, when the New London and Providence express came running down from Canton junction on a perfectly straight track and crashed into the rear of the Mansfield train. The engine of the Providence train plowed into the end car for a distance of five or six feet and caused this car to telescope the one ahead. Between these cars was brakeman Austin, who was caught, and remained jammed in the wreck for nearly an hour. All the passengers who were injured were in the rear car, with the exception of Mr. Rines. Congressman Morse was not seriously injured, and returned home after his hands and arms were dressed.

Russia's Suspicious Movement.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says that a Russian squadron of 15 ships has left Vladivostok for Chemulpo and Fusan. The Japanese fleet in Ferosan waters, it is also stated, has been recalled, and it is announced, on excellent authority, that several British warships have been ordered to sail for Korea. It is stated that the demand of Russia that the former evacuate Korea is couched in pacific but firm language, and protests against dictation by Russia in foreign affairs.

Fitzsimmons Still Training.

CORPUS CRISTI, Tex., Oct. 25.—Fitzsimmons has this to say: "Corbett has acted a coward and sneak in the whole business, and if I ever meet him I'll tell him so to his face. I intend to complete my four weeks' training at this place, fight or no fight."

National Bank Closes Its Doors.

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 25.—The Columbia National bank of this city has closed its doors by order of Comptroller Eckles. The action was expected because of its connection with other banks recently closed.

May Have Been Killed Accidentally.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Marquis of Waterford, who was found lying on the floor of his study at Curraghmore by a maid with the top of his head blown off, is now supposed to have been accidentally killed.

Great Demand For Freight Cars.

OMAHA, Oct. 25.—The demand for freight cars on Nebraska roads at this time is in excess of the supply, for the first time in three years, and the railroads are cheerful and the shippers depressed.

Little of Interest In the Trial.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—There was not much of interest in the Pague court-martial trial, only two witnesses being examined. Their testimony was not sensational.

EX-CONSUL WALLER'S CASE.

His Wife Will Go Before the Secretary of State With Papers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Waller has not yet had an interview with the secretary of state because of the absence of her papers. These have arrived, and she will go before the secretary of state with them, in company with her attorney, Mr. Crammond Kennedy, as soon as he can classify the documents. The presentation which she will make is intended to establish the presumption of innocence on the part of her husband.

She will exhibit, among other documents, all the letters written to her by Mr. Waller after his arrival in Tamatave previous to those on the strength of which he was arrested, and these will show that Mr. Waller, instead of attempting to inform the Hovas of the movements of the French through correspondence with his wife, refrained from all reference to such questions, except to caution her against any act which could be construed as partial to the natives. An affidavit from the Hova lad for whom Mr. Waller was to have purchased four pistols in London, to which reference was made in the sequestered letters, will also be presented.

DRAWING THE LINE.

Great Britain Shuts Down on Our Young Naval Constructors.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Apparently the British authorities feel that they have gone as far as prudence and courtesy permits in assisting in the education of our naval constructors, for the navy department has been notified that hereafter no American naval officers will be permitted to take the course at the Greenwich Royal School of Naval Architecture, a privilege which has been enjoyed by them for many years, with such signal benefit that they usually have graduated at or near the head of their classes.

The Glasgow school and that at Paris, however, are still open to our young constructors, and, with the opening of the Cornell course on the naval architecture, the navy department feels that it can get along very well, thank you.

EX-SENATOR VAN WYCK DEAD.

He Succumbs to a Stroke of Apoplexy in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Ex-United States Senator Charles H. Van Wyck of Nebraska died yesterday afternoon in his apartments at the Portland flats.

He was stricken with apoplexy Monday afternoon and his condition since has been very critical. He showed slight improvement Wednesday morning, but at night grew steadily worse and since then his death had been momentarily expected. At his bedside when the end came were Mrs. Van Wyck, a daughter, Miss Fannie, and his wife's brother, Mark Brodhead.

Enveloped in a Pall of Smoke.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Oct. 25.—A pall of smoke has enveloped this city for weeks. It comes from the west where continuous fires are burning between here and Seymour. Large fires are raging immediately east and west of that place, the one on the west having approached to within a quarter of a mile of the city, but without apparent danger unless in the event of a heavy wind. Those east of the city are burning and an immense amount of timber is being destroyed.

The Steamer's Crew Saved.

BOSTON, Oct. 25.—Captain Gaskill, wife and the crew of the steamer City of St. Augustine, which was reported on fire at sea by the steamer Orizaba, have reached this port on board the Savannah line steamer City of Mason. They were picked up by the Macon soon after leaving the burning vessel, last Monday night, having suffered very little discomfort from their experience.

As are the leaders, so is the party. You know the so-called leader of the Democracy in East Liverpool. Comment is unnecessary.

FOR COUNCIL—J. J. PURINTON.

J. J. Purinton, level headed business man and good citizen, is a candidate for council, and the best thing that could have happened to him has occurred. He has been attacked by the local organ of Democracy. In the eyes of that sheet he is everything bad, which means that when judged from the standard of good men he is not only all that is right, but he is the very man for the position of councilman. The mere fact that he does not meet with the approval of the Democratic boss is the very reason why he will get the largest majority accorded a Republican candidate in the Third for many years. The people want no such officials as the Democratic organ would set up; and what is more, they will not have them. Clean, honest and enterprising are the qualifications demanded by the public, and the gang which attempts to show that Mr. Purinton is otherwise, stands convicted before the entire community. He has lived here for many years, and his voice has ever been raised in any cause which had for its culmination the advancement of East Liverpool. He has been numbered among the progressive men of the city, and never has he been found battling on the side of wrong. With John Purinton in council there will be added a worker who is acquainted with the needs of the city, a lawyer whose presence may be the means of preventing wrong through ignorance of the law. He can and will devote himself to the duties attached to the position, and will undoubtedly oppose some of the disreputable schemes which find a lodging in the figure head of the organ in question. John Purinton is conservative and sensible, and just such a man as will cast his vote, not in the interests of any one particular individual, but in the interests of the people.

And one other thing. It is absolutely necessary that future councils look to the welfare of the city better than have those in the past. There are councilmen and councilmen, good, bad and indifferent. Some chase a cherished plan through an entire term, others are no good to themselves or their constituents. What we need and what we must have are not men who tie themselves up in one word and expend their every effort in that cause, but broad minded, far seeing men, whose glance will go over the city, and whose efforts will be directed for the greatest good to the greatest number. A council chamber full of such men as John Purinton would drive his opponents wild with eagerness to get them out of office, but their presence in the city government would mark a new era in Liverpool; would mean a good municipal government. The scurrilous and uncalculated attack upon John Purinton has made him many warm friends, who will devote their time to urging his cause and pushing his claim for the office. A vote for John J. Purinton for council in the Third ward is a vote for an advocate of clean government, a vote for an exponent of honesty in the administration of municipal affairs. Vote for him yourself and see that every ballot goes in on Monday, October 28.

DESTRUCTIVE REBELS.

Cuban Insurgents Commit Numerous Depredations.

THEY KILL A PEACEABLE CITIZEN.

Young Woman and Policeman Wounded and Much Property Destroyed—A Member of the Cuban Junta Gives Particulars of the Puerto Principe Victory.

HAVANA, Oct. 25.—The band of insurgents commanded by Clotilde Hato Nuevo, who recently attacked Hato Nuevo, have killed a peaceable citizen, wounded a young lady and a policeman and burned a church and 27 houses of that place, the buildings being the property of the mayor of the town. The insurgents were pursued and the troops captured one of them, a man who was severely wounded.

The insurgents have also attacked the village of Esperanza, in the province of Santa Clara, seriously wounding a Spanish sentinel who fired upon their advance guard at the plantation of Labrador. After exchanging shots for an hour the insurgents retired with a loss of two killed.

A band of 300 insurgents under the leadership of Fraga, El Inglesito, Le Muerte and Regino Alfonso, which had concentrated between Navajas and Corral Falso, province of Matanzas, have marched to the San Miguel hill of Matanzas.

A skirmish has taken place at Palmira, province of Santa Clara, between a detachment of 33 infantry soldiers, commanded by Lieutenant Barrios, and a band of 20 insurgents. Two of the latter were killed. The insurgents have derailed a train near Placetas. Lieutenant Gallego, who surrendered the small dispatch boat Dos de Mayo at Aserradero bay, near Santiago de Cuba, recently to a number of insurgents, who attacked the patroling craft unexpectedly, has arrived here with the crew of the vessel, consisting of 12 men. They are under arrest and will be tried by court martial.

Confirmation has been received here of the report that a body of men was seen lately around Canimaricao, in the Canimar river, province of Matanzas. These men are supposed to have belonged to a recently landed filibuster expedition, but no details regarding them have as yet been made public. A special from Minneapolis says: A member of the Cuban junta who travels for the cigar trade, and who was a colonel in the first Cuban revolution, has reached here. He has been concerned in every effort of the American junta to help the Cuban cause, including the Wilmington affair. Following is a dispatch he has received from Cuba describing the recent revolutionist victory which gave the control of the province of Puerto Principe to the insurgents.

"General Maceo, acting under orders from the war minister, started to march from Santiago de Cuba to join General Sanchos in Las Billas, in the province of Santa Clara, where they were to unite their forces and ravage the sugar plantations. The Spanish got wind of General Maceo's intention and immediately dispatched a formidable column of 2,800 men, under General Echagua, to prevent the junction of the Cuban forces. This column found General Maceo as far advanced on his way as the San Juan valley, in the south of Cuba, between Polguin and Barajagua. Maceo had 3,000 men, of which 500 were cavalry, and 2,500 infantry. The Spanish had 200 men less, but this difference was more than compensated for by the possession of three excellent pieces of artillery. The battle began at once and was fought by the Cubans with great fury. After four hours of terrific fighting General Echagua was driven from the field in disorderly retreat, leaving 800 killed and wounded men and all his artillery behind him. Since the battle the insurgents have overrun Puerto Principe and have effected a junction with General Sanchos at Las Billas."

The colonel said: "We are bound to win. We control three-fourths of the island now. Our men are armed not only with Mansars captured from the Spaniards, but also with Winchester and Remingtons sent from the United States. There are over 300 American officers in our army and more are going every day. Only a few of the relief expeditions we are sending out get into the papers. We are now planning a couple that will put a final quietus on Spain.

The Spaniards are fighting barbarously. They give no quarter, and kill the wounded. We are going to kill the United States for recognition when congress meets. Our president, Salvador Cisneros, has sent Dr. Joaquin Castillo, well remembered in connection with the Jeannette expedition, to this country to treat with President Cleveland. He has not yet arrived and is probably having trouble in getting through the lines."

His Skull Crushed In.

SOUTH GREENFIELD, Mo., Oct. 25.—As W. D. Ford was passing along the railroad he discovered a man lying in the center of the track about half a mile west of town, and upon examination it was found to be the body of W. D. Percell, druggist and liverman of this place. Percell's skull was crushed in, evidently by a blow from behind. It is evident that he was murdered and then placed on the track, as his watch was taken. A telegram was sent to Springfield to an owner of bloodhounds and an effort will be made to track the murderer.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The Way Deserving Soldiers Have Their Pensions Taken From Them.

The soldier is drawing $10 per month, not dreaming that his pension will in any way be disturbed; he has not made an application for increase and has had no correspondence with the pension department since the granting of his pension. Without any warning he receives a notice from the commissioner of pensions as follows: "Medical evidence on file in this department shows that you are not disabled in a pensionable degree by reason of the disabilities on which you are now drawing pension," and he is given 30 days to produce evidence to show why his name should not be dropped from the pension rolls. The soldier who had the patriotism and the courage to enlist in the army and endure the hardships of a four-year campaign is not a man that would call on a physician for treatment for every little ache or pain, and consequently in nine cases out of ten he can not give the medical evidence required, and at the end of 30 days his name is dropped from the rolls and he has to make up the number of 75,000 that were to be stricken off, as stated by the newspapers at the beginning of the Cleveland administration.

From the time of the administration of Commissioner Bently down to the time of Hoke Smith it has always been the rule in the department at Washington that where there was reasonable suspicion of fraud in the procuring of a pension the pensioner was notified and the government undertook to set aside its former judgment by proof of the fraudulent character of the obtainment, but now Mr. Hoke Smith, either through ignorance of the fundamental principles of law or in disregard thereof, suspends these pensions upon his own volition, thereby overruling the former judgment of his bureau and forcing the applicant to prove that the government was wrong when it decided in his favor. The attitude of this man is a burlesque upon justice, and the judicial character of old Dogberry has been raised a good many points by the stupid blundering of this frenzied official. What right has this scion of the southern confederacy to say that an adjudication in favor of a soldier was erroneous and reverse it, and then call upon the soldier to retray and re-establish his rights? A grosser abuse of power or usurpation has never happened before in this country. For Hoke Smith, upon his own motion, to order an arbitrary exercise of power without authority of law.

The truth is that this raid upon the pension list, which has been systematically conducted for the past two or three years, is but the sequel of a pre-arranged conspiracy to force upon this country the free trade policy of the Democratic party. Tariff reform, as howled by the Democratic party, meant a large reduction in the revenues of the government, and reduction in revenue receipts necessitated reduction in expenditures, and so the old soldiers of the country have been made the victims of Democratic tariff reform.

Calvin S. Brice's part in this conspiracy consisted in seeing to it that no Union soldier should be appointed a pension examiner; also that no Republican should find a place on the pension boards, which has been carried out in the appointment of these boards all over Ohio, with probably two or three unimportant exceptions.

This was the cornerstone of the conspiracy, and the work of executing it was given to a hater of the Union soldier, habitue of Wall street, a millionaire and toady of aristocracy.

MAIL TRAIN WRECKED.

Disastrous Accident on the P. R. R. at Baileys.

CONTENTS OF FOUR CARS BURNED.

ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. 25.—A disastrous wreck, involving the death of two men, the injury of several others and the destruction of a large amount of mail matter has occurred near Bailey's station, on the middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad. It appears that a wheel on a car on an eastbound freight train broke at Trimmers Rock, near Baileys, and three or four cars were wrecked and thrown on the opposite track. The mail section of the southwestern express, composed of six postal cars and a storage car, was passing at the time, and crashed into the wreck. The engine was thrown from the track and hurled into the canal. Engineer Daniel Wolfkill and J. W. Haines, fireman, were instantly killed.

There were six mail cars on the wrecked train, the contents of four, with the exception of a few sacks for Louisville, St. Louis and a few mailers from New York, and no account can be given of the contents for several days. As stated, the train was composed entirely of mail cars, and consequently no passengers were carried. The injured postal clerks received prompt attention, and those who are able will be sent to their homes at once.

The body of Engineer Wolfkill was found under the engine tender. It was bruised but slightly, and it was evident that he had been drowned. Fireman Haines' body is probably under the engine.

FATAL REAR-END COLLISION.

One Man Killed, a Woman Fatally Injured and 12 Others Hurt.

HYDE PARK, Mass., Oct. 25.—A rear-end collision has occurred here on the N. Y. N. H. & H. railroad, in which one man was killed, a woman fatally injured and 12 other passengers, including Congressman Elijah A. Morse, were more or less seriously hurt. The list of dead and injured is as follows: G. M. Austin, brakeman, dead. The injured are: Mrs. William Ross of Cambridge, fatally injured internally; Congressman Elijah A. Morse of Canton, both hands and arms badly cut; W. Bragg, Roxbury, injured about head; Miss Ella Donovan, Boston, chest injured; J. F. Maguire, Roxbury, injured about head; Mrs. F. J. Maguire, Malden, injured internally; Mrs. J. Burns, Hyde Park, injured about head; Mrs. Gannon, Cambridge, internal injuries; Thomas J. Burke, Norfolk Station, injured about head; William B. Hoyt, Roxbury, internal injuries; Joe Rines, Roxbury, internal injuries. The regular Mansfield accommodation train was just leaving the Hyde Park station, 10 minutes late, when the New London and Providence express came running down from Canton junction on a perfectly straight track and crashed into the rear of the Mansfield train. The engine of the Providence train plowed into the end car for a distance of five or six feet and caused this car to telescope the one ahead. Austin, who these cars was brakeman, was killed, and was caught, and remained jammed in the wreck for nearly an hour. All the passengers who were injured were in the rear car, with the exception of Mr. Rines. Congressman Morse was not seriously injured, and returned home after his hands and arms were dressed.

Russia's Suspicious Movement.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says that a Russian squadron of 15 ships has left Vladivostok for Chemulpo and Fusan. The Japanese fleet in Formosan waters, it is also stated, has been recalled, and it is announced, on excellent authority, that several British warships have been ordered to sail for Korea. It is stated at Shanghai that Japan's reply to the demand of Russia that the former evacuate Korea is couched in pacific but firm language, and protests against dictation by Russia in foreign affairs.

Fitzsimmons Still Training.

CORPUS CRISTI, Tex., Oct. 25.—Fitzsimmons has this to say: "Corbett has acted a coward and sneak in the whole business, and if I ever meet him I'll tell him so to his face. I intend to complete my four weeks' training at this place. Fight or no fight."

National Bank Closes Its Doors.

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 25.—The Columbia National bank of this city has closed its doors by order of Comptroller Eccles. The action was expected because of its connection with other banks recently closed.

May Have Been Killed Accidentally.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Marquis of Waterford, who was found lying on the floor of his study at Curraghmore, by a maid with the top of his head blown off, is now supposed to have been accidentally killed.

Great Demand For Freight Cars.

OMAHA, Oct. 25.—The demand for freight cars on Nebraska roads at this time is in excess of the supply, for the first time in three years, and the railroads are cheerful and the shippers depressed.

Little of Interest In the Trial.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—There was not much of interest in the Pague martial trial, only two witnesses being examined. Their testimony [was not

EX-CONSUL WALLER'S CASE.

His Wife Will Go Before the Secretary of State With Papers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Waller has not yet had an interview with the secretary of state because of the absence of her papers. These have arrived, and she will go before the secretary of state with them, in company with her attorney, Mr. Crammond Kennedy, as soon as he can classify the documents. The presentation which she will make is intended to establish the presumption of innocence on the part of her husband.

She will exhibit, among other documents, all the letters written to her by Mr. Waller after his arrival in Tamateva previous to those on the strength of which he was arrested, and these will show that Mr. Waller, instead of attempting to inform the Hovas of the movements of the French through correspondence with his wife, refrained from all reference to such questions, except to caution her against any act which could be construed as partial to the natives. An affidavit from the Hova lad for whom Mr. Waller was to have purchased four pistols in London, to which reference was made in the sequestered letters, will also be presented.

DRAWING THE LINE.

Great Britain Shuts Down on Our Young Naval Constructors.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Apparently the British authorities feel that they have gone as far as prudence and courtesy permits in assisting in the education of our naval constructors, for the navy department has been notified that hereafter no American naval officers will be permitted to take the course at the Greenwich Royal School of Naval Architecture, a privilege which has been enjoyed by them for many years, with such signal benefit that they usually have graduated at or near the head of their classes.

The Glasgow school and that at Paris, however, are still open to our young constructors, and, with the opening of the Cornell course on the naval architecture, the navy department feels that it can get along very well, thank you.

EX-SENATOR VAN WYCK DEAD.

He Succumbs to a Stroke of Apoplexy in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Ex-United States Senator Charles H. Van Wyck of Nebraska died yesterday afternoon in his apartments at the Portland flats. He was stricken with apoplexy Monday afternoon and his condition since has been very critical. He showed slight improvement Wednesday morning, but at night grew steadily worse and since then his death had been momentarily expected. At his bedside when the end came were Mrs. Van Wyck, a daughter, Miss Fannie, and his wife's brother, Mark Brodhead.

Enveloped in a Pall of Smoke.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Oct. 25.—A pall of smoke has enveloped this city for weeks. It comes from the west where continuous fires are burning between here and Seymour. Large fires are raging immediately east and west of that place, the one on the west having approached to within a quarter of a mile of the city, but without apparent danger unless in the event of a heavy wind. Those east of the city are burning and an immense amount of timber is being destroyed.

The Steamer's Crew Saved.

BOSTON, Oct. 25.—Captain Gaskill, wife and the crew of the steamer City of St. Augustine, which was reported on fire at sea by the steamer Orizaba, have reached this port on board the Savannah line steamer City of Macon. They were picked up by the Macon soon after leaving the burning vessel, last Monday night, having suffered very little discomfort from their experience.

DON'T LIKE MARRIAGE

Three Divorces Filed in Common Pleas.

A HUSBAND LIKED BASE BALL

And Came Home From Games Drunk—A Woman Deserts the Other Side of the House—Another Divorce Asked After 30 Years of Matrimony.

Special to News Review.

LISBON, Oct. 25.—More divorces were filed in common pleas today than in any day for months, the list being increased by three.

Mrs. Nellie Beavan, of Washingtonville, wants a divorce from her husband, John E. Beavan, after a period of matrimony extending over no more than two years. After they were married he began to cruelly treat her, particularly when she was seriously ill. Then, she says, he brutally sneaked away, joined an excursion to a base ball game, and came home intoxicated. When their child died he refused to attend the funeral, or in any way render assistance that would give it a decent burial. The parties reside at Washingtonville.

James M. Leiber, of North Georgetown, asks to be separated from his wife, Mary E. Leiber. The only particulars given in the petition is that she has been absent for three years. They were married 16 years.

Teresa Bonkerts, of Columbiana, is tired of living with her husband John, and wants a divorce. They were married in Pittsburg 30 years ago, and asks a divorce on the ground that he has deserted her.

Another phase of married life appeared in probate court when George S. Herndon, of New Garden, was tried for not supporting his family. He was found guilty and sentenced to four months in the Cleveland workhouse.

In spite of these dark incidents of married life, two permits to marry were issued today. The happy ones are S. C. Zimmerman and Miss Nettie Weaver; Oliver Paxson and Miss Ollie M. Nease.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quelled. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, when can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

A Good Performance.

The DeHaven Comedy company at the Grand had another large house last night. The play was admirably staged and the sawmill scene was received with rounds of applause. The specialties were as usual of a character to please the audience. James R. McAleer, the great center fielder of the Cleveland baseball club, is here, and will make his appearance tonight with the company, reciting Casey at the Bat. Saturday matinee, price 10 cents to everybody.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Mason, of Chillicothe, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

SENSATION IN THE COIT TRIAL

Joseph Boughn Testifies That the Mob Was Organized.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 25.—Captain Vincent's examination in the Coit trial was concluded without incident. Joseph Boughn, the next witness, created a sensation. He testified that Popejoy, Wilcox and H. Kirk told him there would be a meeting that night in Grand Army hall, at Jeffersonville, to form a mob to take the negro Dolley from Washington C. H. jail and lynch him. This talk was general on the streets of Jeffersonville.

He drove to Washington C. H. next day with Philander Popejoy, Bill Hughey, Will Pfeiffer, Ed Robinson and Nat Carr in Jim Hayes' wagon; saw a number of persons on foot and in vehicles going to Washington C. H. All of those with whom he talked said they were going to hang Dolley. One of them, Jim Conner, had a shotgun. The witness estimated the crowd to number 1,000 or 1,500 when the negro was being brought from the jail to the courthouse. He heard William Kirk cry out, "Now for him, boys." He with the rest rushed into the line of soldiers. He was near the courthouse steps when the battering ram was used, and said that men as well as boys were handling it. Three shots were fired in the alley before the soldiers opened on the mob.

OPENED A MOUND.

Twenty Skeletons of Africans Found in a Sitting Position.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 25.—A mound in the edge of the big marsh on the farm of Henry T. Niles, just outside the city limits, has been opened. Twenty skeletons were found, all in a sitting position, and facing toward the east. At the side of each was a piece of pottery, covered with hieroglyphics.

The bones crumbled badly on exposure, but many were kept intact, and two skulls are almost perfect. The teeth are larger than those of the people of today, and the lower jaws are larger. Segments of flint were also taken out and some few small, crude instruments. Further excavations are to be made. The pottery in this mound is different from that taken from any Ohio or Michigan mound heretofore.

They Will Probably Be Pardoned.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 25.—It is given out unofficially that a noted and prominent Hamilton county prisoner is about to be released from the state prison on pardon from Governor McKinley. The man is no doubt Robert C. Day, who murdered his father, Allen C. Day, in 1889 and is serving a life sentence for it. The case was presented to the board of pardons at its recent meeting.

Strike Practically at an End.

MASSILLON, O., Oct. 25.—The coal strike in the Massillon district is practically at an end, the miners having been gradually resuming work for several days past without the consent of their organization leaders. In each case work has been resumed on the same terms as those under which the miners of the state at large are now employed.

* Bradford in Luck.

LONDON, O., Oct. 25.—The jury in the case of Albert Bradford, accused of murder in the second degree for killing A. D. Stone, has returned a verdict of assault and battery. The jury was out 22 hours. Bradford admitted the crime, and pleaded in justification of it that Stone had insulted Mrs. Bradford.

The Floating Bethel.

STREUVILLE, O., Oct. 25.—The floating bethel, which started out from Pittsburg, is now moored at Warren, this county, where the occupants are attempting the cure of a man named Chamberlain, who is a cripple from rheumatism. The case is attracting considerable attention.

A Workman Asphyxiated.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 25.—Nicholas Smith, an employe at the Struthers blast furnace, while cleaning boilers was asphyxiated by gas and died in an hour after being taken out of a boiler. Smith had been employed only three days at the furnace and said his home was in Pittsburg.

Gibsonburg In Flames.

TOLEDO, Oct. 25.—Reports from Gibsonburg, O., an oil town 20 miles south of here, say that the entire town is in flames, and that the entire town is in flames, and that the entire town is in flames.

Fifteen Years For Horsestealing.

MCARTHUR, O., Oct. 25.—Elmer Waldren, aged 20 years, has been sentenced to 15 years for horsestealing. Six months ago he was sent to the penitentiary for life for killing his uncle, but was granted a new trial.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

Whipple Funk, the infant son of Chas. Funk of Portsmouth, died from the effects of drinking a bottle of liniment.

Operators drilling for oil on the Myrick farm, six miles from Athens, struck a big stream at 178 feet. Experienced oil men say that the flow will be from 50 to 100 barrels per day.

A special agent of the postoffice department is investigating alleged mismanagement of the postoffice at Lucasville, word having been received at headquarters that all was not right there.

Cornfields are in danger from the muck lands burning in the southwestern part of Wayne county. Some places the muck fires have reached within a very few feet of the corn, and farmers are fighting the fire.

Governor McKinley has put the matter of extending state relief to the sufferers from fire at Blanchester into the hands of Hon. R. M. Rowand. Mr. Rowand is now in communication with Mayor J. W. Fouts of the village.

At a preliminary hearing at Wooster a Mayor Jeffries held George Smith, a wealthy farmer, in $1,500 bond to await the action of the grand jury. In an assault to kill David Zimmerman, Smith split open the latter's head with a shovel.

Mrs. Eliza D. Brushart has brought suit for alimony from her husband, Paul Brushart, the defendant being a leading lumber dealer of Portsmouth. The plaintiff alleges failure to provide and infidelity, and names Miss Lizzie Smith as a co-respondent.

Governor McKinley has granted a pardon to Harry Diehl, who was convicted last year of stabbing to wound, and given last year of 13 months. The crime was committed at a dance at a farmhouse near Gibsonburg, Sandusky county, on the night of June 27, 1894. The victim was Charles F. Otney, a desperado.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The trolley wire broke at Thompson's pottery last night, and Nancy Hanks and her crew was called out.

William Elwell yesterday won the case of forcible detention that he has had in the court of Squire Manley against Peter Daugherty.

Carey and Mercer went to Bellaire this morning, where they will figure prominently in a game of ball. The Westlake boys will also be there.

Some of the potteries are being rushed with orders for holiday goods, and more than one decorating shop in the city was working a full force last night.

The Columbian club will hold an informal dance in their room this evening, the music being provided by the Italian orchestra that came to town yesterday.

A car on the local which runs between Alliance and Cleveland was ditched at Atwater this morning, and the 5 o'clock train was delayed several hours. The damage was not great.

A poor woman from Fairview had the misfortune to lose her pocketbook yesterday afternoon in the central part of the city. It contained over $10, all the money she had with her.

There was a fight at the lower end of Broadway last night, in which the son of a saloonist soundly thrashed a well known resident who has figured in happenings of that character before.

The police had another quiet night of it last night, their principal concern being practice in the art of keeping warm. They say it was colder toward morning than any day of the season.

A small boy who was surreptitiously having a ride on a car on Washington street had an ugly fall at the Hotel Grand last night. The practice will likely be killed after some one is killed.

A local paper draws fondly on its imagination for a "Capitalist" who will tell it that the street railway will not be sold, when it is absolutely certain that the "Capitalist" don't know anything about the matter.

A number of Knights of Pythias will go to West Bridgewater this evening for the purpose of aiding in the initiation of several candidates. A banquet will be served, and they expect an evening of pleasure.

The husband of the runaway wife, mention of whose escapade was made in the NEWS REVIEW of yesterday, has joined issues with the wife of the run away husband, and left last evening for Kensington, Pa., where it is believed the guilty pair have taken up their abode.

A drunken man driving a horse on the Calcutta road last night caused no little excitement by the short turns and fantastic evolutions he exacted of the poor animal. The crowd expected to see the chap thrown from his buggy and hurt, but after a time he drove on without accident.

There is a misapprehension abroad concerning the date of the election for councilman in the Third ward. The election is a special, and according to the proclamation signed by Mayor Gilbert, will take place next Monday. The issue is an important one, and every man in the ward should find time to cast his ballot.

The erection of the proposed market house will meet with opposition before the matter is finally settled. It is known that certain members of council do not take kindly to it, but rather than shoulder the responsibility prefer to let it go to a vote of the people. They look upon the structure as unnecessary and uncalled for, and can see no benefits that may arise from it.

A party of prominent citizens in the Third ward are banding themselves together for the purpose of pushing the claims of John J. Purinton for council. Every man of them is a disciple of good government and all want to see the popular, pushing attorney elected to a seat in council. They want nothing but that to which they are entitled, and they believe they will win with hands down.

There is an epidemic in East End, and many families in that part of the city have illness among their members. The disease has not yet been named by the doctors, but it is a species of cold which settles in some particular portion of the anatomy of the individual affected, and causes whooping cough after the fashion of the cough bearing that name. One man has four children in bed, and almost every family in East End is affected or has been touched by the epidemic.

A prominent young man, who until recently was actively engaged in church work, has severed his connection with the congregation and fallen from grace. As usual there is a woman in the case, and when he discovered that she upon whom he had centered all his affections had turned him down completely he lost all interest in church affairs and trampled under foot all that he had once held sacred. His friends say that the maiden, who happens to be very well known as a church woman, will call him back when she knows how low he has sunk.

THE CALCUTTA ROAD.

A Taxpayer Speaks His Little Piece on the Subject.

In a conversation this morning with a prominent official of the city, he said that he did not favor the idea of paving Calcutta road; that the assessment on property up there would not justify the paving being done, and that it would be wise for council to go ahead with the sidewalks and curbing and leave the paving until the assessment on the property up there would cover the amount required for the improvement, which, in his estimation, will be a number of years yet, and that the interests of the city be considered before that of private individuals.

FIRE AT WELLSVILLE.

The Fire Department Too Late to Do Any Good.

There was a slight fire in Wellsville last night, the flames eating up an unoccupied one story dwelling, which had until lately been occupied by a colored family. The house was located in the vicinity of the pottery. The blame is laid upon incendiaries. It is stated by our correspondent that the fire department was very dilatory in its movements, and that the apparatus did not reach the scene of action until the building was almost consumed.

For Prosecutor Huff's Place.

The Toronto Tribune, gives out this information: "Rev. W. H. Robertson, a Methodist Episcopal minister of New Cumberland, is an applicant for Prosecuting Attorney Huff's shoes. The executive committee meets Friday to take action in securing a successor of Attorney Huff, who died nearly two months ago. Judge Campbell has recommended that Robertson be appointed for the place. Reverend Robertson has been preaching in what is known as the Manchester circuit, composed of three churches in Hancock county."

Wedded.

A. W. Scott and bride returned last night from Allegheny, where they were married, and were tendered a reception at the residence of H. H. Nixon, on Walnut street. Friends, to the number of 30, were present to wish the happy couple a long and prosperous life and make the evening a memorable one. An elaborate repast had been prepared and all sat down to partake of the good things provided. Vocal and instrumental music was rendered in a pleasing manner by a number of our home talent. The festivities were kept up until an early hour.

Miss Gertrude Le Noir McGillivray

Will read at the First Methodist Episcopal church tonight. Mr. Waters, the famous blind organist, will render several selections, and several prominent vocalists and instrumental performers will participate. The admission is but 10 cents. You can't afford to miss this treat.

Vandalism.

When Doctor Shay returned to his office this afternoon, he found that somebody had been tampering with his medicine case and had broken about 50 bottles, containing drugs. The damage will amount to about $15. Should the perpetrators be apprehended they will receive a strong dose of the law.

Fishermen.

I. N. Crable and the other members of the party that were fishing at Merrill yesterday, returned last night with 22 fine beauties, consisting of salmon and bass. They say that a great number are taking advantage of the sport, that locality being thick with anglers.

Pleasantly Surprised.

A number of friends of L. T. Morelin, the popular foreman of Smith's lumber mill, surprised him and his wife at their residence on Avondale street last night. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and all partook of an oyster supper served at a late hour.

Pocahontas.

The ladies of the Pocahontas ode will celebrate the anniversary of their existence as a lodge next Thursday evening at Red Men's hall. There will be speeches made and vocal and instrumental selections rendered.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Work has been commenced on the East End culvert, and the bridge will be pushed to completion as soon as possible.

Put off with starch and glass serene,
The linen collar starts the morn;
Put off at noon it is seen
All wilted, wrinkled and forlorn.

That's what you must expect of such a collar; it's the linen of it. The stand-up collars won't stand up, and the turn-down collars will wilt down. The easy, cheap, and pleasant way out of this is to wear "CELLULOID" COLLARS AND CUFFS. These goods are made by covering linen collars or cuffs on both sides with "CELLULOID," thus making them strong and durable, and waterproof, not affected by heat or moisture. There are no other waterproof goods made this way, consequently none that can wear so well. When soiled simply wipe them off with a wet cloth. Every piece of the genuine is stamped like this:

Insist upon goods so marked if you expect full satisfaction, and if your dealer does not keep them, send direct to us enclosing amount and we will mail sample. State size, and whether a stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted. Collars 25c. each. Cuffs 50c. pair.

Wedding Party Visitors.

Mrs. A. W. Scott, accompanied by her son, H. B. Scott, visited East Liverpool with the Scott wedding party last night, and remained over until today with son and brother, Architect Scott, returning to their Pittsburg home today. H. B. Scott is an old newspaper man and a member of the Pittsburg Press club. He is well and favorably known in this city and in Hancock county, having been connected with a West Virginia paper some years ago.

Arrested.

H. A. Booth, E. Cecchall, George Breckenridge, James Hanlon and N. A. Bubert, of the sprinkler system, were arrested today for tampering with city water mains last night. They were placed under $50 bail and were released by Daniel McNicol going their bond.

A Run Off.

A horse driven by James Bowers, of Seventh street, frightened at a street car on Sixth street this afternoon and ran off, throwing Bowers out and bruising him up considerably. The animal was stopped on Broadway. The buggy was smashed.

THE CALCUTTA ROAD.

A Taxpayer Speaks His Little Piece on the Subject.

In a conversation this morning with a prominent official of the city, he said that he did not favor the idea of paving Calcutta road; that the assessment on property up there would not justify the paving being done, and that it would be wise for council to go ahead with the sidewalks and curbing and leave the paving until the assessment on the property up there would cover the amount required for the improvement, which, in his estimation, will be a number of years yet, and that the interests of the city be considered before that of private individuals.

FIRE AT WELLSVILLE.

The Fire Department Too Late to Do Any Good.

There was a slight fire in Wellsville last night, the flames eating up an unoccupied one story dwelling, which had until lately been occupied by a colored family. The house was located in the vicinity of the pottery. The blame is laid upon incendiaries. It is stated by our correspondent that the fire department was very dilatory in its movements, and that the apparatus did not reach the scene of action until the building was almost consumed.

CALCUTTA HEARD FROM

The Property Owners Want Paving Done.

THEY PETITION CITY COUNCIL

The Residents Along the Calcutta Road Mean Business This Time—They Want Paving Done, and Seem to Realize the Fact That Such Procedure is the Very Truest and Best System of Economy.

That Calcutta road question, like Banquo's ghost, will not down, but bobs up serenely and forces itself once more upon the attention of the wise men of ye city council. This time the problem comes under the guise of a petition at the hands of the large majority of the property holders along the route spoken of, and it seems to a man up a tree as if the matter will now receive full and careful consideration.

Careful perusal of the petition designated shows that the petitioners are earnest in their desire that the street shall be graded and paved, with sidewalks placed in good shape, and that curbing shall be conspicuous by its absence. At the next meeting of council, the following will be handed in for mature consideration:

"TO THE HONORABLE CITY COUNCIL.—The undersigned, owners of property bounding and abutting on Calcutta road, from the Horn switch to Wall street, hereby petition your honorable body that said street or road, between the points named, be improved by grading to the established grade, paving the roadway with hard burned paving brick, and that sidewalks be laid on both sides of said street, between the above points. We desire that no curbing be placed between the pavement and roadway."

Then follows the petitioners' names, and the list will show that those pushing the affair know what they are about and that they are moving in a business-like, intelligent manner.

By the way, gentle reader, have you made note that the march of improvement is in the air in the vicinity of East Liverpool? If you have not, then are you impregnated with the spirit of old fogysm and should be relegated to a back seat. East Liverpool is destined to make her mark in this Buckeye state, and in fact all over the United States, and you will be kicked aside if you dare interpose the puny arm of rebellion. Talk up your city. Work for your city. Push forward the interests of your city.

THE HIGH SCHOOL

Entertainment Greeted By a Highly Delighted Audience.

A well pleased assemblage was gathered in the Fourth street school building last evening and the universal verdict of those who had the pleasure of being present is that it was an evening of genuine enjoyment. Professor Swan opened with a well rendered selection on the symphony organ, followed by the Young Men's Christian association male quartet in "Come Away," winning the hearty applause given them. Mrs. Dix gave, in superb style, Rubenstein's "Valse Caprice." Miss Andrews gave as a reading, "Aux Italiens," and she gave it in the tone and manner of the true artist, winning golden opinions from her hearers and adding to her admirers in this community. The piano duet of Misses Boland and McKelvey met with warm approval. Mrs. Clements and Misses Rudy and Beardmore pleased with a charming trio, accompanied on the piano by Miss Jackman. Misses Parke and Potts made rich music in "Cavatina," on violin and piano, and the little ladies were the recipients of hearty commendation. In the next number there were two pianos called into requisition in the rendering of "Ad Astra." Misses Chapman, Croxall, Huston and Swan forming a musical quartette which produced rich melody, finding full favor at the hands of the ladies and gentlemen present. This was indeed a genuine gem, and so caught the fancy of the audience as to compel the young ladies to respond with a second selection. Next came Messrs. Usher and Young, with autoharp, harmonica and violin, and they rendered a popular selection in such a captivating manner as to necessitate their recall, when they responded with a medley which caused hearts to palpitate with pleasure and keen enjoyment, even some of the staid schoolmarms expressing a desire to trip the light fantastic. Misses Huston and Chapman lost no laurels in their rendition of "La Baladine" on the pianos, while Misses Potts and Parke again evoked melody on violin and piano. "Sonatina Op. 20," nicely rendered on the piano by Miss Carr, concluded the evening's enjoyment, and that it was an evening of genuine enjoyment, will be gladly vouched for by each and every one in attendance. It is to be hoped that we will be given more entertainments of a similar character.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Supper and Entertainment a Most Flattering Success.

There was a fine audience present at the First Methodist Episcopal church last night, and the program was a decidedly attractive one. Miss Goldie Weaver opened with an artistically rendered piano solo, and was followed with a vocal duet by the Misses Sebring, to the piano accompaniment of Mrs. Ted Brookes; this was again warmly applauded. Miss McGilvray captured the audience in superb reading, followed by a charming vocal solo by Miss Wainwright, of Lisbon; she in turn was followed by Miss Ida Moser, of Lisbon, in reading, winning well-deserved applause from her audience. The vocal duet of the Misses Adams was a charming piece of melody, enhanced by the piano accompaniment of Mrs. Ted Brookes. Eddie Macrum delighted those present with a splendidly executed organ solo. Miss McGilvray gave a second selection of reading, after which Messrs Gotschall and McIntosh sang a duet to Mrs. Ted Brookes' accompaniment, and sang it in such splendid style as to win warm approval. The church choir closed the evening's entertainment with a finely rendered anthem, with Eddie Macrum making the splendid organ talk. After this, the main portion of those present adjourned to the lecture room, where an enjoyable social was indulged in until a late hour.

Previous to the entertainment the Lisbon leaguers were entertained with a bounteous repast in the lecture room of the church, and several of the lady visitors afterwards whispered to the newgatherer that the Liverpool leaguers knew, to a nicety, how to entertain in royal style. The visitors came over from the county seat in vehicles yesterday afternoon, leaving Lisbon about 2 o'clock. The merry party was composed as follows: Misses Dorwart, Johnsons (2), Handle, Parfit, Mills, Graham, Lucas (3), Jolly, Armstrong, Bentley, Wainwright, Bennets, Springer, Fraser, Davis, Griffith and Moser. Messrs. Greene, Armstrong, Henderson, Fetherly, Morris (2), Moffat, Howe and Linder-smith. A number of the visitors returned home last night, while a number remained over until today, for the purpose of visiting our potteries and industries.

The Epworth League supper and entertainment was a decided success, and those in charge of affairs deserve warm commendation.

HOME FROM GEORGIA.

James R. Hill Reports a Very Enjoyable Trip.

James R. Hill and wife arrived home last evening from Atlanta, Georgia, where they had been in attendance upon the convention of laundrymen, some 1,500 members being present, representing all parts of the United States. Mr. Hill reports an exceedingly enjoyable and pleasant time, although he is quite free in expressing the opinion that this grand old Buckeye State is much to be preferred, as a place of residence, over that of Georgia. He participated in a grand barbecue while at Atlanta, and states that the surroundings were rich, varied and simply indescribable, and he was led to believe, from the mass of black faces, greeting him wherever he turned, that at least half of the population of Georgia is embraced in the colored race. Excursions were run out of Atlanta, to far distant points, and Mr. and Mrs. Hill took full advantage of them during their two week's vacation, visiting points of special interest in Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee, being greatly pleased with the views from Lookout Mountain and Mission Ridge.

HE IS FORGIVING.

The East Liverpool Follower of Tubal Cain Is Not Revengeful.

Frank McCuen, the Second street blacksmith, returned last night after an unsuccessful attempt to find his wife. Mrs. Patterson, who accompanied him in search of her husband, remained at Kensington. McCuen says that he can't understand why his wife left him, as he always treated her kindly and provided her with a good home. If she comes back he says he will make her welcome, but will not bother his head about looking for her any more. He thinks that the guilty pair had their plans arranged for some time and were only waiting a favorable opportunity to carry them out. The guilty man in the case certainly has cause for rejoicing in the fact that an outraged husband is not upon his trail with blood in his eyes and a weapon of destruction in his brawny hand. Sensationalism is certainly having a harvest in this section of Uncle Sam's domain.

NIGGER IN WOOD PILE

What Is the Cause of This Political Protest.

DO WE WANT LAW AND ORDER

George Meredith, George Peach and Joseph Geon Protest Against the Special Election Which Has Been Announced For Next Monday, Oct. 28. What Will the Harvest Be?

And now comes the statement, from a apparently reliable authority, that a protest has been entered, before the county board of elections, against holding the special election for councilman in the Third ward on Monday next, the protestants urging the plea that the holding of said special election is not in conformity with law. The parties protesting are George Meredith, George Peach and Joseph Geon and Frank Grosshans has been retained by them as counsel.

City Solicitor Clark was interviewed respecting the matter this afternoon, and cited the following:

"Section 1,724, Revised Statutes of Ohio, says: When a vacancy happens among the members of council or board of aldermen, a special election shall be held within 20 days thereafter, unless the annual municipal election occurs within 60 days after the vacancy, and the mayor shall designate the time and place of such election; but at least 10 days public notice shall be given."

The general election laws conflict with this, however, and state that the general supervisors of election shall control the matter, and City Solicitor Clark is of the opinion that their action, as already taken in this case, is final and would stand any legal test. The question of the right of the councilman elected on Monday next to take his seat might also be raised, and might cause trouble and annoyance, and while the solicitor has not studied the matter fully and completely, he is of the opinion that the action of the supervisors will be concurred in by the higher authorities, and he is backed up in this by precedent, as cited by long-headed, clever politicians.

It will be remembered that one of the protestants, George Peach, was a candidate for the berth made vacant in the Third ward, and was nominated by Mr. John Hohman, book-keeper in the employ of Mr. George Meredith. In the light of this fact, this sudden protesting has an uncanny aspect, and indicates a very dark colored coon beneath the chip pile. It looks as if the law would have been all right, and everything smooth sailing, had Mr. Peach been nominated. The majority rules, and Peach should have bowed gracefully to the verdict.

Messrs Grosshans, Geon and Peach were interviewed this afternoon, and each one denied that they had filed any such protest, although Mr. Geon smilingly admitted that such a petition might be in existence. Good authority assures us that Grosshans drew up the protest in legal form.

AND NOW REPUBLICANS:—Don't be misled and don't be kept away from the polls on Monday, October 28. The special election WILL BE HELD, and every Republican in the Third ward should cast his vote for John J. Purinton and good government. Cast your ballot and do YOUR DUTY, and the legality of the election will be looked after fully afterward. Don't play into the hands of Democracy.

EXPLANATORY.

Mr. Ben Little, Sr., Tells His Side of the Story.

The communication respecting Mr. Ben Little, which appeared in yesterday's issue, a clipping from the Wells-ville Union, caused much comment in this city. Mr. Ben Little, Sr., called at the News Review office this morning and informed the management that the article in question refers to his son, Ben Little, Jr., and further tells an interesting story in connection with the affair, a story which brings several others into the matter, and may yet cause quite a sensation, as Mr. Little, Sr., intends that the affair shall be fully ventilated. The bad literature referred to yesterday as being distributed in Wells-ville, some of which reached the scholars in the public schools, was not distributed by Ben Little, Jr., as per Ben Little, Sr., but was first distributed by a well-known Wells-ville youth (who has since decamped) to an equally well-known East Liverpool youth (for whom a warrant has been issued), and this second youth handed one of the cards to Ben Little, Jr., who in turn gave the card, or saloon advertisement, with offensive and vulgar rhyme printed on the back thereof, to a young girl with whom he had been keeping company, exchanging it for some poetry which she promised to give to him. This girl, in turn, showed the card to some of her school girl acquaintances, and the result was exposure and publicity. When young Ben was arrested and taken to Wells-ville, he was asked by Mayor Sinclair where he got the card, a copy of which was on exhibition in court, and he replied that he had received it from an East Liverpool acquaintance, who had received it from a Wells-ville youth, naming the Wells-ville boy. Ben was then asked if he would not make an information against his two companions, but wanted to know why the information would not be made by the same parties who had informed against him. The Wells-ville chief of police then stepped into the breach and informations were made out. The intimation now given out is that the Wells-ville lad was given a tip as to his danger, and fled from the wrath to come. We await developments. Mr. Little, Sr., believes in fair play, and thinks that if his boy is punished, the other guilty parties should be compelled to take a like dose of medicine.

WITHRUP THE FORGER.

He Is Verdant, or Uses Verdancy as a Convenient Mask.

Withrup, the forger, arrested yesterday for attempting to utter worthless paper, is certainly a character in his way, and he looks upon his arrest with almost absolute complacency. In a talk with a News Review reporter the young fellow said: "My father has a farm at Kennerdale, Pa., which is my home. I left there about a month ago, looking for employment in the oil fields in Pennsylvania. Not being successful there I drifted over to Ohio and landed in Youngstown, and from there rode over to East Liverpool on my bicycle. My stock in cash was about exhausted and I wanted money to reach the oil fields in West Virginia, so I took this means of procuring it. Do you think they will put me in the penitentiary?" he asked, in a tone of innocence, "or will they send me back to Pennsylvania. I did not do anything up there. This was my first attempt." Evidently he did not know that the telegram received stated that he had tried to forge checks in Pennsylvania. He said he has no bad habits and was not led into evil ways by bad companions. He is youthful in appearance and says his age is 18. He certainly does not look like a criminal, and does not seem to realize that he has been guilty of a crime punishable by a term in the penitentiary. He wanted to send word to his father, but did not think that the latter would come here.

BOUND OVER.

That Pocketbook Incident Causes Much Trouble.

Mrs. Cassie Kilmer, of Third street, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of falsely claiming a pocketbook, had her hearing this morning and pleaded not guilty. She was convicted on the evidence of Lilly Sheavels, the little girl who found the pocketbook, which she says Mrs. Kilmer claimed as her own, and gave her 10 cents, telling her not to say a word about finding it. The mayor asked the little girl if she could identify the woman, and she said yes, and was asked to point her out from a number of women that were present. She looked around and pointing to Mrs. Kilmer, said: "That is the woman that I gave the pocketbook to." Although Mrs. Kilmer made strenuous denials of the charges against her, the mayor adjudged her guilty and bound her over to court, placing her bail at $200. She was released later in the day by W. H. McClain giving bond for her.

TROUBLE OVER A COAL BILL.

He Wanted Lump and Said He Was Furnished Slack.

Robert Moore, the coal man, made information yesterday before Mayor Gilbert against one James Miller, whom he said had threatened him and called him foul names. Marshal Gill notified Miller to appear, which he did, and after hearing the charge read to him, finally pleaded guilty and was fined $5.00, which he paid. The trouble originated over a load of coal which Moore sold to Miller and which, it was claimed, was nearly all slack, and payment for the same was refused. Moore tried to collect his bill and went to Miller's wife about it. She would not pay it, whereupon, Miller says, Moore began to roundly abuse and insult his wife, and that was the reason for the attack on Moore.

Squire Rose was presented with a steele plate engraving of Abraham Lincoln yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brunt.

THE WATER QUESTION

An Interesting Letter From an U. S. Official.

WE WILL RECEIVE ATTENTION

The Vice President of the Board of Health in Receipt of a Communication From an Official at Davis Island Dam—All Possible Precautions Will be Taken in Our Favor.

The letter which John J. Purinton, vice president of the East Liverpool board of health, addressed to the secretary of war, has already borne fruit, and it is hoped that the harvest will increase in volume and kind, until some arrangements are made by this municipality, by and through which the water supply of East Liverpool will be of such a character as to insure the health of the community at large, and the presence of disease germs be a matter of rarity instead of superabundance. Agitation of the question will bring out, in letters of living flame, the necessity of a healthful water supply, and only those who are blind to their own interests, as well as those of their fellow citizens, will neglect to read, and reading, take full precautions. Following is the communication received by Vice President Purinton:

DAVIS ISLAND DAM,
U. S. ENGINEER'S OFFICE,
PITTSBURG, PA., Oct. 24.
Mr. John J. Purinton, East Liverpool, Ohio.

DEAR SIR:—Your letter to the secretary of war, in regard to the lowering of the Davis Island dam, has been forwarded to me. When we start to lowering the dam, I will notify the superintendent of your water works, giving the probable time it will take the water to reach you. This notice cannot be given 24 hours before the time of lowering, as you suggest, as we don't know an hour previous to the time of beginning. This notice may come to you any hour of the night, as we have no control of the time the dam has to be put down.

Very Respectfully,
WILLIAM MARTIN,
Assistant Engineer.

By the above our citizens will see just the position we are placed in respecting the accumulating filth of the upper river. Proper precautions will now be taken, and everything possible to do will be done by our water officials. The man or men who first suggested such health precautions are deserving of warm commendation, for the question is one of vital import from a health standpoint.

FREE NIGHT SCHOOL.

There Are From Thirty to Thirty-Five In Attendance.

The attendance at the free night schools of the Methodist Protestant church reaches from 30 to 35 nightly, and great good is evidently being accomplished. If the attendance continues to increase as it has lately, it will be found necessary to use the larger rooms. Increased numbers will give encouragement to the projectors of the movement, and will result in added zeal on the part of every student. We have been given to understand that all persons, old or young, male or female, will be given a cordial welcome. This is certainly a grand offer to those who desire education in the common branches, and those who are thus devoting time and money for the benefit of their fellow creatures, deserve the warmest commendation.

A POOR OLD MAN.

He Was Indeed an Object of Commiseration.

An old man, who said he was from Mingo, called on the mayor yesterday afternoon and asked permission to solicit aid here. He said he was sadly afflicted with scrofula and was trying to raise money enough to pay for a course of treatment in the hospital. His appearance substantiated his statements, his head being a mass of corruption, and sympathy was expressed on all sides for him. The mayor granted his request and he went away expressing his gratitude.

THREE ESSENTIALS.

Mr. Huckle Will Address the First M. E. Epworth League.

Mr. W. Huckle will deliver an address on Sunday evening in the lecture room of the First Methodist Episcopal church, previous to the services in the upper room. The speaker will take as the topic of his talk, the "Three Essentials." Mr. Huckle is a good talker, and has a rich fund of information to draw from, and you will miss a treat if you fail in attending the Epworth league. You have a cordial invitation to be present.

—W. H. Surles is in Pittsburg today on business.

THE idea of politics possessed by Mr. Brice is the English plan. A member of parliament can live in one county and represent another.

WHEN Calvin S. Brice and his friends, Gorman and Smith, were revising the Wilson bill, they thought more of their friend Isadore Strauss than of the voters of Liverpool.

THE only home which Mr. Brice has had in Ohio for 15 years is a private railway car, which is occasionally run over the lines he owns in the state. Yet he has the impudence to be a candidate for the senate.

BEFORE Candidate Campbell became mixed up in this campaign, it was generally concluded that he was a sensible man, with opinions of his own. Now it is known that he is keeping these opinions to himself, if he is a sensible man.

THE oceans and oceans of hoolie being spent by the Democratic committee in their wild endeavors to capture the general assembly was not collected in Sunday schools or churches, although some of it would doubtless find its way there if Mr. Brice paid his railroad men good wages.

YOUR DUTY.

It is your bounden duty, Third ward Republicans, to turn out every vote in the ward on Monday, October 28, at the special election for councilman, and cast your ballot for John J. Purinton and good government.

BRICE IS THE LEADER.

It is the duty of Ohio to rebuke Mr. Brice and his kindred this year, and rebuke them in an effective manner. This thing of rolling in a barrel of bills from New York or any other state should be stopped. Corruption in politics is the corruption which strikes at the root of those institutions held dear by every American, and when Mr. Brice or any other man of wealth can come to Ohio and buy an election of any kind, he is dealing out a brand of iniquity that is not wanted here. For almost six years the people of the country have pointed with scorn at this state because a New Yorker occupied a seat in the senate which by every right of the constitution belonged to a Buckeye. We have been denied this representation, and if corruption can win we will be denied it again. They say that Colonel Brice is not a consideration in this campaign and that he is no more a candidate than a dozen other Democrats, but we know this is a lot of political rot, in line with an abundance of other stuff trumped up for the occasion. Brice is the candidate. He is the leader of the campaign. Around him revolves James E. Campbell, who pretends that he is anxious to be governor. Pledged to his cause are hundreds of Democratic workers, who are battling day and night for the colonel. Mr. Brice is the head of the Democratic party in Ohio, and through him, and by him and for him they hope to win.

Good health is a precious boon and those who enjoy it should preserve it at whatever cost. DUN'S TRADE REVIEW.

Cooler Weather Has Helped the Retail Trade.

NEW ORDERS STILL MUCH NEEDED.

Little Improvement in Cotton Exports. Bessemer Pig Has Advanced, But the Finished Product Has Declined—Tinplate Will Depend on Prices.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, says: Ten days ago gold exports seemed very near. But the break in cotton, which then began, ripened on Monday into a collapse sufficient to justify hope of a free movement. Hides have also dropped sharply at Chicago, leather is weaker and the adjustment of prices to realizations of imaginary conditions progresses rapidly. Already lower prices in iron have brought out some important contracts. Money markets cause remarkably little trouble. Cooler weather has generally helped retail trade, and with increased consumption by the millions the way will be clear for better business. Already payments through clearing houses closely approach for October those of the best year in history, though reflecting in part past transactions, and new orders are still needed by the great industries.

Cotton exports improve but little because foreign stocks are so large and the lower prices give more confidence to mills which feared to purchase another manufacture when decline was reasonably expected. Wheat has risen 3 cents for the week, although western receipts, 5,977,066 bushels for the week, against 5,059,787 last year, continue unusually large, and Atlantic exports, including flour, 1,170,117 bushels for the week, against 1,856,934 last year, and four weeks, 5,734,572 bushels, against 9,195,046 last year, show plainly a slack demand from abroad. Nobody can give a reason for higher cotton, and pork declines 5 cents, and a sixteenth, and hog 10 cents per 100 pounds. Bessemer pig advanced, but the finished products, on the whole, declined as much; other pig iron not rising. Rails to Oct. 1, 570,000 tons delivered and 705,000 tons sold, made a pitiful record. Whether tinplate works will take 300,000,000 pounds of steel this year, as the latest official report indicates, will depend on prices, and sales of coke below the latest established prices are noticed, with the largest production on record.

Textile manufacturers have, for the moment, disturbed rather than helped by the decline in cotton, because it checks buying of some fabrics with lower prices for print cloths and prospects of lower prices for other goods. The demand for worsteds and dress goods is encouraging, while in woolen goods the situation does not improve. Renewed orders are moderate, and men's goods are easy at previous quotations.

Failures for the week have been 231 in the United States, against 231 last year, and 38 in Canada, against 52 last year.

Paid the Penalty of His Crime.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—William Young has been hanged at San Quentin for murder. Story of his crime: William Young murdered and robbed his employer, an aged Frenchman named Pierre Latestro, in Monterey county. Young shot the old man with a gun and then robbed him of $55. Latestro, before he died, said Young shot him, and the latter confessed the crime. Young came from Germany three years ago, and was addicted to drink.

Editors at the Exposition.

ATLANTA, Oct. 26.—The New York editors, numbering 100 members, of the State Press association, have attended the formal opening of the New York building at the exposition. A. O. Bunell read an address prepared by J. P. Farrell, president of the association. H. Cabanis, editor of the Atlanta Journal, spoke for the exposition. A reception, lunch and musical followed.

Did Not Go to New York.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Oct. 26.—Corbett is still in Spring Lake, and announces that he will remain there until Nov. 1, to preclude any possibility of Fitzsimmons claiming a fluke in case he comes here Oct. 30, which is not probable. Telegrams to Julian and Fitzsimmons have not been answered.

Explosion Causes a Big Fire.

NASHUA, N. H., Oct. 26.—By the explosion of combustible material in the candy manufacturing establishment of Charles Holman, the Holman block, a large brick structure, has been entirely destroyed by fire. Loss, $40,000; fully covered by insurance. The firm employs 100 hands.

A Prisoner Escapes From Jail.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—The Chicago police have been notified that Charles Miller, serving a 20-years' sentence in the Joliet penitentiary, has made his escape and is supposed to be making his way to this city. He made his escape by cutting his way through a door into the hospital.

Nebraska Bank Suspends.

GOTHENBURG, Neb., Oct. 26.—The state bank has closed its doors. The failure is due to the slowness of collections. From the best information obtainable the deposits amount to about $50,000, while the assets are about $25,000, but part is uncollectable.

Have Entered a Protest.

PARIS, Oct. 26.—The minister of husbandry has received a deputation from the department of the north, which presented a petition to the government protesting against the importation of cattle into France from the Argentine republic and Canada.

Will Not Be a Candidate.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—United States Senator John M. Palmer has authorized the announcement that he will not be a candidate for re-election.

Has Been Created a Baronet.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Sir Joseph Rehals, lord mayor of London, has been made a baronet.

FELL WITH A CRASH.

A Factory Wall Gives Way and Injures 12 Workmen.

CLYDE, O., Oct. 26.—Half of the east wall of the Elmore Manufacturing company's three-story bicycle factory has collapsed. All of the floors were filled with workmen. More than a dozen are badly injured, and several are buried under the debris. Volunteers risked their lives to rescue the unfortunate. A young son of Foreman George Holloway was the first to be dug out. He is badly crushed and mangled, but may recover.

The following is a list of the injured: James Becker, one of the proprietors, head badly bruised and hip injured; Clarence Whaley, caught under a machine, head badly bruised and cut; Edward King, dug out from under fallen walls, head cut and body badly bruised; Will reover; William Snyder, found in the trench, leg broken at the ankle; Roy Lemmon, head cut and bruised about body; Archie Holloway, found in the trench, head cut and injured internally; Frank Cook, caught under the wall, badly bruised and suffered internal injuries, will probably die; William Hudson, right leg caught under falling timbers and broken in two places.

Workmen had commenced to dig a trench along the east wall of the building for a water main, and it was this which weakened the wall and caused it to collapse. All the men who were in the trench at the time were caught under the falling wall, and their escape from instant death was remarkable, as the wall fell outward, throwing three of the floors partially off the ground. The portion of the wall which fell is about 90 feet in length and three stories high. The main offices were in this end of the building, and consequently fewer workmen were there to be caught.

Sued For $100,000 Damages.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26.—Mrs. Kate M. Sandford, widow of John L. Sandford, who was shot and killed by Senator William Goebel in Covington, Ky., April 11 last, has brought suit against Goebel for $100,000 damages for the killing of her husband. While there was no question of the killing of Sandford by Goebel, the court dismissed Goebel on the ground of self-defense. Since then testimony has been presented to the grand jury, but no indictment has been found.

A Hunter Found Dead.

AKRON, O., Oct. 26.—Dan L. Doyle, 26 years of age, a wealthy young business man of this city, has been found dead in a field just west of this city, with an ugly gunshot wound in his abdomen. Doyle was hunting with a companion and it is not known whether his death is the result of an accident or suicide. His young wife died a few weeks ago, leaving him with a little child, and he has brooded much over her loss.

To Arbitrate Ohio Miners' Wages.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 26.—Hon. John Little of Xenia, member of the state board of arbitration, was selected to arbitrate the differences between the Ohio miners and operators on the wage question. Under the agreement Ohio is to have an advance proportionate to the advance in the Pittsburgh district. The operators claim the prevailing rate in the Pittsburgh district is 64 cents a ton for mining and the miners claim it is 69 cents.

Charles Hazard Pardoned.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 26.—Governor McKinley has issued a pardon to Charles E. Hazard, who was convicted a year ago last spring of manslaughter. Hazard killed his wife in Cincinnati. His stepson was in the house, drunk and quarrelsome, at the time and attacked Hazard. He fired at the stepson, but just at this moment his wife stepped between them and received the bullet.

Crushed Beneath a Stove.

NEWARK, O., Oct. 26.—James Barker and E. L. Weisgerber were driving the former's horse, which was hitched to a wagon in which was a stove. The animal took fright, ran away and turned the wagon over. In the fall Weisgerber sustained a dislocated shoulder, and the stove falling on Barker crushed the base of his skull so that he lived but four hours.

A Fatal Stray Shot.

MASSFIELD, O., Oct. 26.—George Alheim and John Ricketts quarreled in the former's place of business. Alheim pulled a revolver and shot at Ricketts. The bullet failed to hit his intended victim, but struck and fatally injured Clifton Lime, aged 20, who passed in front of the place at the time.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

Dr. Harris, a prominent physician of Lorain, died by suicide by cutting his throat. The jugular vein was severed.

Boswell E. Palmer, one of the pioneer citizens and business men of Portsmouth, died. Death was caused by paralysis.

At a meeting of creditors of the Citizens' Savings bank of Portsmouth a committee was appointed to petition the state court to appoint an expert accountant to assist Hon. A. T. Holcomb, the assignee, in examining the books of the bank.

Mr. William Blaisdell, a capitalist and promoter of Honolulu, has been in Cleveland during the past week, engaged in interesting capitalists in a vast scheme to obtain control of the best sugar cane producing lands in the Sandwich Islands. A company has been formed with a capital of $3,000,000.

Luther Gubson, a 14-year-old colored boy, was arrested at Martin's Ferry for stealing seven penknives from Peter Wagner's store, and will be sent to the state reform school. He has committed many thefts, and recently shot himself in the leg because his mother threatened to send him to the reform school.

Patrick Dailey, a tank builder in the employ of the Buckeye Pipeline company, was cut to pieces by an Lake Erie and Western freight train at the Main street crossing in Findlay. Dailey had been drinking, and against the advice of companions, attempted to board the train. Losing his hold his body swung under the train and 15 cars passed over him. Dailey's home was at Lima. He was 35 years old and unmarried.

Cincinnati Livestock Market.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26.
HOGS—Market active and higher at $3.30; 400; receipts, 3,100 head; shipments, 1,000 head.
CATTLE—Market steady at $2.25; 450; receipts, 30 head; shipments, 30 head.
SHEEP AND LAMBS—Market steady at $1.00; 375; receipts, 2,500 head; shipments, 1,400 head. Lambs, market lower at $2.75; 400.

RUSSIA REACHING OUT.

Another War Cloud Arising in the Far East.

ENGLAND APPARENTLY ALARMED.

The Bear Evidently After More Territory. A Fleet of 15 Russian Warships Have Departed For the Scene—Other Powers Expected to Protest.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The dispatch from Shanghai announcing the departure of a fleet of 15 Russian warships from Vladivostok for Chemulpo and Fusan, Korea, and the dispatch from Hong Kong announcing that Russia has obtained the right to anchor her fleet at Port Arthur and construct railroads on the Liao-Tung peninsula have caused intense excitement in official circles here as well as in those having commercial relations with the far east. These statements are looked upon generally as being a sudden reopening in an unexpected quarter of the far eastern question in its widest sense. The Shanghai dispatch added that the Japanese fleet in Formosan waters had been recalled, that several British warships had been ordered to Korea and that preparations for a struggle were visible on all sides.

The Hong-Kong cable message to The Times caused that paper to remark editorially: "Russia cannot possibly imagine that the great powers will view with indifference such a destruction of the balance of power, which is almost unparalleled in its audacity. China's option to purchase the railways is a just almost too cynical to find place in any serious diplomatic transaction. Under the indicated conditions Manchuria would practically become a Russian province, while Peking would be within Russia's grip."

It is admitted here that the situation presented is so grave that should the news prove true, it would make war, in which several nations will take part, more than probable. It should be added that there is every reason to believe that the story from Hong-Kong is authentic, and all sources of information agree that the powers interested in the far east will find themselves confronted by a condition of seriousness which cannot be overestimated.

The papers of this city all publish long articles agreeing that British intervention in the far east is necessary.

The St. James Gazette says: "Even war with Russia would be less disastrous than to allow her, without a blow, to get such a grip upon China. She could throttle all the other powers and choke off their commerce. Unless Russia and China give the necessary assurances, it is a case for an ultimatum and perhaps the most serious step our diplomacy has had since the Crimean war." The impression is general in the official world, and it is re-echoed by the press, that neither America or Germany can allow the Pacific to become "a Franco-Russian lake," as The Globe puts it, and it is generally thought that the diplomats will be sufficiently strong to combine to resist Russian aggression.

The Pall Mall Gazette sums up the startling news with the statement that "Russia has annexed China," and in the course of a long article on the subject adds: "If this treaty is to stand, roll up the map of Asia." In conclusion it urges the reoccupation of Port Hamilton by the British and the immediate strengthening of the British fleet in Chinese waters "lest Japan lose her feet at the first blow."

At the different clubs the war scare in the east is eagerly discussed, the grave situation of affairs in Manchuria having almost dropped out of recollection in the alarm of the moment. Nobody seems to doubt the report, that by the recently agreed-upon Russo-China treaty, Russia has obtained rights to which the most-favored-nation clause is not applicable, which may cause a great war.

A special from New York says: Henry M. Stanley, the British member of Parliament, speaking of the diplomatic situation in the east, said:

"England will not find it necessary to fight Russia. The English are a quiet, peace-loving people. They are too commercial, and the government will not rush into war because of Russia's action. Because Russia has been enterprising in acquiring commercial rights I do not see that it is anything to be very bitter about or to cause violent measures. If Russia has acquired the sole right to undertake commercial operations in China, any rival may well feel embittered that the privilege was lost to such rival. Still it is not a sufficient cause for war."

"China had the right to give to it whatever power she chose. Russia simply saw her advantage. As to China's object in the alleged cession of territory, safety in the future is the only one I can see. China having been defeated by Japan, has been persuaded that by sacrifice she can secure the future."

To Secure the Republican Convention. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 26.—The Business Men's League of St. Louis has appointed a committee to canvass for a guarantee fund of $50,000 to secure the Republican national convention for St. Louis in 1896. Assurances of support were read from several members of the national committee, and the co-operation of some members of the national executive committee was also promised.

Still Negotiating For the Fight. EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 26.—J. J. Taylor, chairman of the El Paso committee, has wired Dan Staranette of $10,000 to put up a cash fight with Fitzsimmons could fight here without interference. Stuart replied he was at work trying to sign the men for a fight at El Paso. Corbett telegraphed that he had no objection to El Paso as a battle ground.

An Underground Fire Raging. BERLIN, Wis., Oct. 26.—An underground fire which has been burning in a marsh four miles north of this city has broken out afresh and the flames were carried into the woods by the high wind which has prevailed. By dint of hard work on the part of farmers and help from the city the fire was put under control. If high winds spring up again the fire will cause considerable damage, as several large farms are in its path.

To Protect the Missionaries. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 26.—The United States cruiser Marblehead has arrived at Mersina, Asia Minor, to protect the missionaries of that district.

A Noted Pianist Dead. MANCHESTER, Eng., Oct. 26.—Chas. Halle, the noted pianist, is dead at the age of 77 years.

BRICE COMES HIGH.

He Has Taken $60,000,000 From the Farmers.

The darkest chapter in Mr. Brice's public career is that involving his complete surrender of his high trust as senator from Ohio to the caucus committee, Senators Vest of Missouri, Jones of Arkansas, and Mills of Texas, as far as the tariff bill was concerned, in exchange for duties on coal and iron ore. Remember it was not a case of a caucus considering and agreeing upon a measure or appointing, out something as different as day from night. It was an agreement to support, through the senate and through the conference, whatever the committee might in the future propose. No matter what industries of Ohio were hit or hurt, Mr. Brice agreed to stand by the committee, the duty on coal and ore having been fixed. The state of Ohio would, of course, have been utterly powerless to authorize its senator to delegate its authority as to any matter however unimportant. Yet Mr. Brice, bearing its commission as senator, did not hesitate to do so as to matters in which its citizens had vast and vital interests. Never was such perfidy exhibited before; think, if you can, of John Sherman saying to other senators: "Go ahead, and whatever you may think best to propose about this measure, no matter how it may affect the people of Ohio, I'll stand by you and support your propositions." And yet this is what was done by Mr. Brice, and on this action he predicated largely his claim for statesmanship. After the bill had become a law, Democrats of Holmes county demanded of him that he favor the house bill putting sugar on the free list. He telegraphed a reply in effect that now, as he was freed from the caucus agreement, he would listen to the wishes of his constituents, and support the measure, thus confirming his perfidy.

Senator Brice's action in this matter has cost the farmers of the county $60,000,000. Mr. Brice is a high priced luxury.

"Jumping Jimmy."

Mr. Brice's hired man is versatile; he does not find it necessary to make the same speech in all the localities he visits. For instance, down in Brown county, where there are no sheep, he waxed eloquent in detailing the advantages to the people of free wool, but up in Marion county, where there are many flocks, he generalized on the tariff and made no mention of wool. Again, in his speech at Mansfield, he made no reference to the bill providing for the lease of the Hocking canal property, which in other sections of the state he denounced as the "crowning infamy of the Seventy-first general assembly." His silence on this subject at Mansfield may have been due to the fact that immediately behind him sat the Hon. Curtis E. McBride, the present Democratic representative from Richland county, who is a candidate for re-election, and who, it is generally conceded, will, if the next house be Democratic, be the speaker thereof. Now Mr. McBride was one of the most ardent champions of the bill which Mr. Campbell so severely criticised, and he would have no trouble in giving a satisfactory explanation of his vote thereon.

A Brice Colony.

Passengers on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad have their attention called to an encampment some miles above Lima. About it may be seen a large number of men who, like Senator Brice himself, have a residence for voting purposes in Allen county. The men ostensibly work upon the Lima Northern railroad, as it is commonly called, which Mr. Brice is building. It is noted that an unusual number of men are employed on a very small piece of work. It is also a singular fact that all the men so employed are single men, who have no embarrassing appendages in the nature of wives or families to determine a residence in Indiana or Illinois. Care was taken to locate them in Allen county 30 days before election, and in that 30 days the number employed should have been able to build the embankment for a trunk line from the senator's voting residence at Lima to his actual residence in New York, with branches to his social residence at Newport and his official residence at Washington.

Peaslee and Cox.

Professor Peaslee has been going about the state telling in his gentle, guileless way that he was superintendent of the Cincinnati schools for 12 years and then he was removed by that awful man, George B. Cox. Every man who has heard the professor attempt to make a speech has found in his own mind ample justification for the alleged action of Mr. Cox. It was at Crestline that the professor again sang his song of woe to crowd of about 50 men and boys. He was utterly crushed when a voice sang out "Hurrah for George Cox, he's all right." As the professor stood dazed, another voice queried, "Who's all right?" and there was a response by the entire company, "Why, George B. Cox, he's all right."

Convicted of Counterfeiting.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Dr. Orlando G. Bradford, the dentist who was arrested with the Brooklyn gang of counterfeiters, has been found guilty of having in his possession plates for printing bills. He is liable to a fine of $3,000, 15 years' imprisonment, or both. His alleged accomplice, John Nixon, was acquitted. Dr. Bradford refused the aid of counsel and made a speech to the jury asserting that he had worked with the gang for the purpose of revealing their plans to the secret service officers.

An Underground Fire Raging.

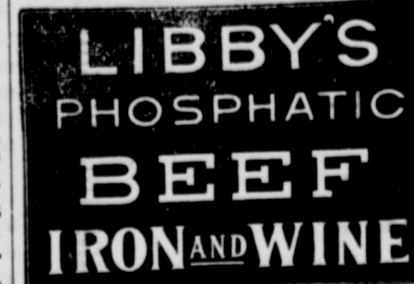

BERLIN, Wis., Oct. 26.—An underground fire which has been burning in a marsh four miles north of this city has broken out afresh and the flames were carried into the woods by the high wind which has prevailed. By dint of hard work on the part of farmers and help from the city the fire was put under control. If high winds spring up again the fire will cause considerable damage, as several large farms are in its path.

Politics and Scenic Beauty.

Governor Foraker is a great lover of the beautiful in nature. Riding on a Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern train a day or two ago he called my attention to the beautiful foliage, turned by the first frosts of autumn, and said: "There is some compensation for the hardships of campaigning in being afforded the opportunity of seeing all this beauty. There is nothing to my mind that can approach our foliage in October."

"You are right, governor," said a gentleman near by. "There is great compensation in the autumn landscape. I take a trip east every fall over the mountains by the Baltimore and Ohio just to drink in and enjoy the scenery. I travel by day and always stop at Oakland and Harper's Ferry over night. Every politician ought to take that trip; it is full of beauty and rich with historical associations."

VENEZUELAN AFFAIRS.

The Dispatches Sent by Minister Chamberlain.

ACTION OF THE HIGH COUNCIL.

The State Department in Possession of the Full Text of the British Secretary's Messages—Chamberlain Was Laughed At—No Frontier Defenses.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The state department is in possession of the full text of the dispatches sent by Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies in the British cabinet, to Sir Charles Lees, governor general of British Guiana, concerning the strengthening of the frontier, the increase of police and the purchase of Maxim guns in the British Guiana territory. The department has been furnished also with the detailed action of the high council of British Guiana upon the recommendations of Minister Chamberlain. These proceedings give the full resolution, offered by the governor general, for the purchase of a Maxim gun and ammunition, uniform, arms and accoutrements. They also make the surprising disclosure that the high council of British Guiana, after its members had severely arraigned Minister Chamberlain for his precipitate action in recommending Maxim guns, defeated the resolution for their purchase by a vote of 10 to 8, thus rejecting the policy laid down by the British cabinet.

When the high council opened its session two letters from the British foreign office, signed by Minister Chamberlain, were read. In these letters by states that British Guiana finds itself in a serious position at present; that the colony possesses considerable source of wealth in its gold; that the most important step is the construction of a road, connecting the upper reaches of the Barina and Barana rivers, thence to be carried to the Oyani and on ward, to the junction of the Uruan and Oyani rivers; that the road is necessary for the development of the district, and also from a military point of view to repel any attempt from aggression on the part of Venezuela; that the border of the colony be secured from incursion; that the existing police force be strengthened; that barracks be erected at Uruan and one or two other points, and that attention be given to the various points mentioned and to the whole subject in all its bearings.

After reading the foregoing a resolution was offered appropriating $2,835 for the purchase of a Maxim gun, ammunition, police, arms and accoutrements, and also $4,000 for a barracks at Uruan.

The government secretary said he regarded Mr. Chamberlain's dispatch as the most important communication of the colony of British Guiana had received in recent years. The dispatch, he said, showed that those who were advising her majesty in regard to affairs of British Guiana were not asleep to its interests, and that they were not desirous of letting things remain as they were. It was an imperial policy that was before them. These were big words, he said, to use on the matter of the expenditure of so small an amount as $2,835 for Maxim guns, ammunition, etc., but it was not the consideration of that small sum, but the consideration of the general policy of her majesty's government, which was now being put before the court in black and white.

It was soon evident, however, that the members of the high council did not approve Mr. Chamberlain's proposition for guns and arms. After much debate the motion was put by the government secretary and defeated; yeas, 8; nays, 10. The second resolution, appropriating $4,000 for a barracks at Uruan, was adopted unanimously.

As already stated, the state department has been put in possession of the letters of Mr. Chamberlain and the proceedings of the council, from which the above extracts are made.

Besides the foregoing important developments, translations from the Venezuelan yellow book were made public, covering the demand of Great Britain upon Venezuela one year ago.

Trestle Burned and Train Wrecked.
SAVANNAH, Oct. 26.—A local freight train on the Florida Central and Peninsular railroad, has been wrecked four miles from Savannah. Someone set fire to a trestle over a ravine. The trestle supports were burned away and 14 cars went down. The cars were burned as were 420 bales of cotton and other freight. The total loss is about $30,000. Two negroes were injured in the wreck.

Destructive Fire Raging in Augusta.
AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 26.—The immense lumber plant of Jesse Thompson & Co. has been entirely destroyed by fire, and the fire department is unable to handle the flames. All dwellings in the vicinity are now on fire, and is not by any means under control. Loss between $50,000 and $100,000 already, and the fire is making rapid headway.

Was Temporarily Insane.
LONDON, Oct. 26.—A verdict has been rendered that the Marquis of Waterford committed suicide while in a fit of temporary insanity.

CONFIDENCE AND ITS LACK.

Some Gens From Congressman Perkins Speech That Hit the Mark.
(Delivered at Marshalltown, Ia.)

Everybody says that what we need is confidence—more confidence.

We have been short of confidence ever since Mr. Cleveland was elected.

The shortage increased when it was known that along with him went a congress Democratic in both branches.

Every jump his team of wild horses made trampled on confidence.

The election last fall encouraged confidence. It presented proof that the people had repented in sackcloth and ashes the folly of 1892. As an evidence of faith they improved the opportunity, to make the house of representatives Republican by a big majority.

There is confidence now that the Democratic party can, not legislate further mischief.

The Democrats did all they could to destroy Tom Reed, and therefore there is absolute confidence that he will be speaker again.

But confidence in the senate is not fully restored, and confidence in the administration remains at a heavy discount.

But there is confidence that there will be a complete change in March, 1897. The Democrats always want a change. An administration that relies upon a periodical issue of bonds to keep the treasury afloat isn't in position to command the confidence of the American people.

It is idle to expect confidence in the gold reserve or confidence in the currency so long as revenues are unequal to expenditures—so long as the treasury is systematically starved.

A surplus in the treasury and a surplus of Republicans in congress saved Mr. Cleveland's administration from disgrace in his first term.

Mr. Cleveland himself would have more confidence if he had some of that surplus at his disposal now.

The people of this country are Americans, no matter where they came from, and they want a government for America. They neither want free trade in industrial nor in patriotism.

We are the loyal friends of the Monroe doctrine.

We have no confidence in foreign protectors on this continent, nor among the islands of the sea washing our shores.

We have no confidence in the Democratic policy of compelling our wage earners to compete with the cheapest labor in the markets of the world.

We have more confidence in the markets of the United States than we have in the markets of Europe or Asia.

We have no confidence in the Democratic policy of closing factories here and opening factories abroad.

We have no confidence in the policy of reducing exports and increasing imports.

As a matter of fact there is lack of confidence in the Democratic party along the whole line, and it isn't the purpose to try to restore it.

But, my friends, we have confidence in this great country, in its institutions and in its people.

And we have confidence in the Republican party, in its nationalism, in its patriotism, in its history and in its future.

Confidence will be fully restored when the Republican party is fully restored.

A Great Orator.

One of the most distinguished speakers who is coming to Ohio this year to take part in the Republican campaign is the Hon. Charles Emory Smith, editor of the Philadelphia Press. Mr. Smith was minister to Russia under the Harrison administration and has long been among the most influential of eastern Republicans.

He is an orator of splendid ability and has few equals on the stump in the country. He is a man of fine presence, handsome, magnetic, eloquent, learned and logical.

John De Lounds, who has been incarcerated in the city bastille for the past three days, was released last night upon payment of his fine, $7.50.

John says he will walk in the straight and narrow path hereafter, as he does not wish to have his experience at the jail repeated.

Through an oversight in yesterday's report of the elegant supper and entertainment given under the auspices of the ladies of the First Presbyterian church, the name of Miss Chapman was omitted in mentioning the duet so charmingly rendered by herself and Miss Huston.

The speaker who was advertised to speak in the Diamond yesterday failed to materialize. Evidently he realized that this town did not look with any degree of favor upon the doctrine that is advocated by Coxey and others of a like stamp in his campaign for governor of the state.

Doctor Laughlin received intelligence last night that his brother Albert, living at Georgetown, had been thrown from a wagon and run over, injuring him internally. It is not known whether his injuries will result seriously. The doctor left for Georgetown by the first train.

The water in the river bed has shrunk to such slight proportions that an enthusiast in football circles suggests that the bed be used for a football ground, giving ample room for a full display of the game, without anything to interfere with the view on the part of spectators.

The clerk's union is strictly in the swim, and internal affairs of the society are all that can be desired. The members convened last night and elected William McNutt, E. A. Eels and C. W. Adams as delegates to represent them in Trades and Labor council. Matters of routine were attended to in a satisfactory manner. New members are being added on each meeting held.

Mr. Thomas W. Morris, editor of the News Review, was so unfortunate as to be thrown against the sharp corner of an office desk the day before yesterday. The injury annoyed him very much and caused him keen pain, finally forcing him to abstain from office duty for the time being. The attending physician states that he will have Mr. Morris ready for duty the first of next week.

A certain fair maiden, employed at one of the hill potteries, has been annoyed lately by receiving a number of boxes of flowers from a married man, who is a potter. She returns the flowers as soon as she receives them, but the donor persists in sending them. If he does not desist from this practice, his wife will be informed of his doings, and then there will be trouble in plenty for the lord and master.

The clerks' organization, at their meeting last night, took especial action respecting the observance of legal holidays. Commencing with the coming Thanksgiving day, the entire day will be observed, in accordance with existing laws, and not merely a part of the day, as has been the rule in the past. The members of the organization, in passing this rule, will work to the very best advantage of their employers, and are willing to work until a late hour the previous evening, in order that their employers' interests may not suffer, and that the wants of the public at large may be fully met.

SOILED BLANKETS.

We are just as careful as we can be; take good care of the goods, keep them well covered, but still we have quite a lot of blankets that have gotten soiled. We have sorted them all out, stacked them on a table in our basement and made prices on them that will make them go. Blankets of all grades are represented on this table; the good substantial country blanket, the fine zephyr wool blanket, the fine saxony wool blanket; all marked down to what we consider half values.

DRESS GOODS.

CLOAKS.

Our cloak business was never better, in fact last week was the biggest cloak week we have ever had. We are going to make this week a banner week if possible. We have the goods and have them at the proper prices. Don't buy a cloak until you have gone through our stock. Jackets are being sold largely to young people, and you will be surprised at the goods you can buy at $5.00, $7.50, $9.00 and $10. Then Fur Capes are extremely good for dress wraps. We have no hesitancy in saying that we show the most complete line in the city. Our store has a reputation in the Cloak business, and we are making every effort to keep it up.

A COOL JOKE.

An Employee of the Ice Company Interviews a William Goat.

A good story is told of a practical joke that was perpetrated on one of the employees of the ice company. A member of the firm purchased a goat that was noted for its butting proclivities, and placing the creature in a vacant nook in the stable of the company where the victim slept, retired to await developments.

The employee arrived at his quarters and was surprised beyond measure to stumble over the form of what he supposed to be some wandering individual who had invaded his apartments for the sake of getting shelter for the night. But his consternation knew no bounds when the supposed perambulator, so rudely disturbed, arose in the dim and uncertain light, and assumed the attitude of an aggressor. The employee then drew back and dealt the intruder a powerful blow, felling him to the ground, which settled the fellow, and he was forced to retreat.

In describing the contest, the ice man said that the peregrinator actually held two bricks up in front of his face, and his fists bore evidence of coming in contact with something harder than a man's face.

The true inwardness of the affair has been fully developed, and the pugilistically inclined ice distributor's life is made weary by his fellow workmen, and he swears vengeance on all who took part in the base plot.

THE SALVATION ARMY.

The Army is Doing a Grandly Good Work in This City.

Anything and everything which adds to and advances the moral tone of the citizenship of East Liverpool should be fostered and encouraged, commended and assisted. The Salvation Army and its membership have had an extremely hard row to hoe in various sections of the country. Sections where misrule and evil held sway. But through persecution and trial, amid buffetings and scourings, the members of this organization have held bravely to their appointed work. They have not been subjected to much persecution in this city, to the honor of its citizens be it said, and the organization has returned this good treatment by doing incalculable good for East Liverpool, being the means, in the hands of God, of saving many men and women from lives of outbreathing sin and shame, and making good citizens out of men who would otherwise have been a terror to the community and have constantly been figuring on the police record. All honor to the Salvation Army.

HANDSOME BILLS.

The Advertisement for Governor McKinley's Coming Speech.

The handsome display bills, announcing the coming of Governor McKinley to East Liverpool, and his anticipated speech in the Fifth street rink, are the subject of much favorable comment among our citizens. Of course they were turned out at an office which employs first class job printers, and equally skillful pressmen, men who have worked full time at their respective trades, and who have first class material purchased them by their employers. Best of all, in so far as said workmen are concerned, they are paid the very highest wages paid their craft in this section. It is needless to tell you that the superb bills referred to were turned out at the News Review office, where all classes of the job work receive prompt attention.

RAPID RIDING.

A News Review Employee Makes Good Time on His Wheel.

A young man employed in the front office of the NEWS REVIEW causes a bike to travel when it becomes necessary to make speed. The other day the management found it necessary to deliver some job work to The Chambers company, in the East End, and the party was entrusted with the delivery, which he made on his wheel, taking the upper, or hill road, and making the run to and from East End, delivering the goods safely in the store room in just 20 minutes from the time he left the postoffice. The rider simply emphasizes the fact that he did not stop enroute to play marbles or gather walnuts or chestnuts.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Good Words For O'Hooligan.

The stars of the vaudeville stage are the artists that contribute to the success of the many farce comedies extant, and "O'Hooligan's Masquerade" should certainly be one of the best, as it numbers among its artists such well known vaudeville performers as Gallagher and West, W. B. Watson and Jeannette Dupre, and many others. This meritorious attraction will be presented at the New Grand, Wednesday evening, Oct. 30.

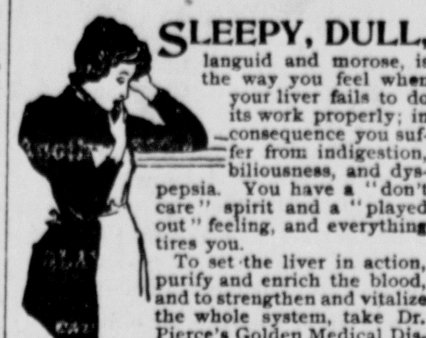

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Meet in Steubenville.

The third semi-annual meeting of the Eastern Ohio and Western West Virginia school superintendents and principals will be held in Steubenville on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1. A number of topics of vital importance will come before the body and discussion of all matters pertaining to the advancement of the school system will be acted upon. Professor Sanor will talk on several topics.

languid and morose, is the way you feel when your liver fails to do its work properly; in consequence you suffer from indigestion, biliousness, and dyspepsia. You have a "don't care" spirit and a "played out" feeling, and everything tires you. To set the liver in action, purify and enrich the blood, and to strengthen and vitalize the whole system, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Having a peculiar effect upon the lining membrane of the stomach and bowels, it makes a lasting cure of all stomach, liver and bowel disorders. By increasing the blood supply, as well as enriching it, all the organs of the body are strengthened, and the nerves are fed on pure, rich blood.

Neuralgia is the "cry of the starved nerves for food"; nervous debility and exhaustion, sleeplessness and nervous prostration are in most instances the direct result of a starved condition of the blood. The true way to cure these ailments permanently is to take the "Golden Medical Discovery," which was discovered and prescribed by an eminent physician, Dr. R. V. Pierce, at present chief consulting physician and specialist to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. If you want a medical opinion on your case, write him. It will cost you nothing.

A Book of 136 pages on "Diseases of the Digestive Organs," will be mailed to any address on receipt of postage, six cents. It contains names, addresses and reproduced photographs of a vast number of people who have been cured of dyspepsia, liver complaint, chronic diarrhea, and kindred ailments by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

"LIVER COMPLAINT."

Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.
Dear Sir—A few of my symptoms were heartburn and fullness after eating; sometimes pain in my bowels and bad taste in my mouth; sometimes I was feverish, with hot flashes over skin. After taking your "Golden Medical Discovery" I was relieved of all these symptoms and I feel perfectly well. Yours truly,

Charles Book

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Mrs. John T. Salmon is able to be out, after an illness of some five weeks.

—Charles Steinfeld, of Wheeling, is visiting his brother, Louis Steinfeld, of this city.

—Secretary Morris, of the Young Men's Christian association, left this morning for a ten-days' visit with friends in Dilworth.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hicks and children, of Allegheny, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Doctor Jackson, Washington street.

At the Opera House.

There was a fine audience present at the Grand last night, "East Lynne" being the attraction, while "Casey at the Bat," in the person of McAleer, of the famous Cleveland base ball club, was quite a drawing card. "Kathleen Mavourneen" will hold the boards to-night. The DeHaven Comedy company has made warm friends among the play-going public during the past week, and they will receive a warm welcome when they again visit East Liverpool.

Lower Rates to Atlanta.

Three forms of excursion tickets to Atlanta account the Cotton States Exposition are for sale via Pennsylvania Lines. One ticket is good returning twenty days from date of sale, another is good for return trip until January 7th, 1896, and a third good returning ten days. Twenty day tickets and those good to return until Jan. 7th may be obtained any time during the Exposition. The ten day tickets will be sold only on Oct. 26th, Nov. 5th, 15th and 25th, and Dec. 5th and 16th, at special low rates. The fare is exceptionally cheap. For details apply to nearest ticket agent of Pennsylvania Lines or address.

Obedience the Order.

"The people in the city are complying with the order of health to connect with the sewers, and the connections that the city will have to make will be very few," said Health Officer King, when asked about the matter this morning. The alleys are being cleaned up and by the time cold weather sets in the city will be in first-class shape.

An Easy Victory.

The Bellaire base ball team defeated Wheeling yesterday by a score of 10 to 4. Mercer, Carey and the Westlake brothers were playing with the winning side. Another game will be played today with Mercer and Westlake as the battery and it looks like an easy thing for Bellaire.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long and tested. Trial bottles free at Potts drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.

A Challenge.

The Steubenville football players challenge any 125 pound team in East Liverpool or Wellsville, high school eleven preferred, for a game of Rugby football. Address all communications to Philip McGuire, manager, Steubenville, O.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Mason, of Chilton, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

A Biathenskite.

Dr. James A. Norton is doing the Republicans good service on the stump this year and his expenses are paid by the Democratic committee. From every place where the doctor has spoken come words of the strongest condemnation of matters contained in his speech. It was left for him to attempt to drag into this campaign the name of that lovely character, that patient sufferer, Mrs. McKinley. The prominence of Governor McKinley has given the public an opportunity to see much of his private life. That the domestic life of Major and Mrs. McKinley has been one of rare happiness, marred only by the frail health of the lady, is known of all men, but Major McKinley has never paraded his devotion to his wife or made a display for political purposes of the fact that he was a loving husband most happily wed. Can there be any excuse for Dr. Norton's statement "that the Republican party was trying to make an issue of the fact that McKinley loved his wife."

Such an outrageous exhibition of bad taste and bad breeding was never made on the stump in Ohio and it is safe to predict that the speaker himself will become heartily ashamed of it.

He Isn't Fit!

Judge Blandin of Cleveland, that honest old Democrat, said in a recent interview of Calvin S. Brice:

"It's humiliating to be a citizen of Ohio, and have a New Yorker come to the state in his private car, try and boss things and make a canvass for United States senator."

Judge Blandin further remarked: "You may say this: I am not going to vote for any man for the legislature unless he is unequivocally committed to vote against Brice for United States senator. I shall support the state officers, but not the legislative candidates who expect to put Brice back into the senate."

"What about Senator Brice's declaration that he is going to make Governor Campbell a presidential possibility?"

"He'll do nothing of the kind, but, of course, he must say that for effect. Brice is a candidate for the presidential chair himself, and he wouldn't do anything to injure his own chance. Neither did he say what he would do to trade Campbell for legislative candidates."

"What are your chief objections against Brice for senator?"

"In the first place he is a citizen of New York, and then he doesn't represent my views on the monetary question and he isn't fit to be senator."
